THE ANGLECYNNE MANIFESTO

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THE ENGLISH?

They still call themselves 'White British'. The Welsh don't. They have reverted to a Welsh national identity, and are uniting behind a surgent Welsh national party. The Scots never call themselves British. They have reverted to a Scottish national identity, and unite behind a dominant Scottish National Party. Only the washed-up English still call themselves 'White British'.

THE ENGLISH NEED A DOMINANT ENGLISH NATIONAL PARTY.

For our very survival we need it. And the other constituents of the moribund United Kingdom also need it. The chaos of England will swamp them. Europe needs it as a village needs the good order of all the households.

ANGLECYNNE is the only name for the needful English nationalist party. Its meaning will be explained later.

THE FOUR EVILS.

Since the French Revolution, Europe has been plagued by Four Evil Revolutionary Ideologies. They are not evil as ideologies: ideas are not evil. They are evil in the deadly effect of their imposition on Humanity. We have seen off two of them, namely Communism and Nazism, but not before the millions of their murders. Two of the Four Evils remain: LIBERALISM, a name well known, and ECONOMISM, a name to be explained. (Global Capitalism is one form of Economism.)

Liberalism and Economism are far deeper into evil than Nazism and Communism as is a man who plunges a knife into your bowel compared to a man who slaps your face. Between them they attack the fundamentals of not just English survival but the survival of the species. Liberalism is the acid that attacks the Human personality. Economism is the acid that attacks our physical survival. Together they are THE REVOLUTIONARY REJECTION OF LIFE AS LIFE HAS EVOLVED ON EARTH. Therefore they are not merely Crimes Against Humanity, they are CRIMES AGAINST LIFE. But they are not conspiracies. Anglecynne rejects conspiracy theory as just another excuse to hate. Liberalism and Economism are MAD. Don't bother to shout at them: the mad cannot hear you. Only action will see them off. See them off or they will see us off.

ANGLECYNNE INTENDS TO SEE OFF BOTH.

REVOLUTION IS EVIL

History should have taught us by now that revolution is evil. Revolution has murdered more human beings than all the kings of history. Revolution is not Reform as hate is not love. Reform is a doctor who seeing a sick patient, cures him: Revolution is a doctor who seeing a sick patient, kills him.

WHY REVOLUTION IS EVIL.

1. The past used to be revered as the giver of life: Revolution is hatred of the past.
2. Revolution destroys with rage the evolved virtues of the past.
3. Revolution brings with it ideologies. Our ancestors retained the animal's sense of caution, look before you leap. Revolutionary Ideologies are imposed before ever they have been tested for their effect in practice. They are untested by NATURAL SELECTION. The relevant Rules of Natural Selection are THE CONSERVATION OF THE SELECTED and MARGINAL CHANGE. These rules are WITHOUT EXCEPTION or they are not rules. Therefore they apply to Humanity at ALL levels of our being. Therefore they are the true, the inexorable, CONSTITUTION OF MANKIND. Nature is without pity. The punishment for disobedience to these rules is death.
4. Revolutionary madness is impossible without the SCIENCE DELUSION which is the most deadly of superstitions, namely that we have conquered nature, that nature is now our slave, and we can rewrite it as we please. We can even patronise her: 'Friends of the Earth'.

Economism practises this deadly delusion with the Life of Earth. Liberalism practises this deadly delusion with Human Nature. The result is the New Biology, which in biological reality is BIOLOGICAL PERVERSION.

Anglecynne has learnt the lesson at last: we are not plasticine. Anglecynne has learnt the lesson at last: we do not decide: BIOLOGY DECIDES. Anglecynne has learnt the lesson at last: not by domination of nature, SPECIES SURVIVE BY FITTING-IN.

Reform is in conformity to Natural Selection: it conserves the past; it changes the past marginally; it doesn't dump the lot on a raging bonfire.

5. For thousands of years, Humanity developed in THE AGE OF KINGS. This age ended by its own success of bringing Mankind on as a parent brings on a child. But kings enjoyed themselves too much and didn't want to be redundant. They clung on and twice they had to be thrown down. THE FIRST TIME WAS IN ENGLAND when a group of gentlemen, called the Whigs, fiddled the expulsion of the whole Stuart dynasty and invited in a German, who held the crown by their permission. A king at the pleasure of a political party is exactly not the definition of a king.

THE SECOND TIME WAS THE FRENCH REVOLUTION.

The end of the Age of Kings brought down on Mankind an age of vacuum, A VACUUM OF AUTHORITY. Remember OUR TRUE CONSTITUTION: WE ARE AN ALPHA MALE SPECIES. Kings expressed this. We wouldn't have them any longer: what would we have? WHAT WE GOT WAS IDEOLOGY. The NEW AUTHORITY was the authority of untested ideas whose testing in practice, via millions of murders, has brought Humanity to the brink of extinction. The ideas originated in the minds of enthusiasts, persons we now call NERDS, so-called intellectuals, the inhabitants of sunless and dusty garrets, who suddenly cried, 'I know what people need', and rushed out and found empty heads to fill who became zealots (or possessed of a devil to use an older language), collected together, formed political parties to impose upon Humanity their Nerdish enthusiasms, their Absolute Truths, whether Mankind wanted them or not, and those who didn't, didn't live long. Another name for the Age of Vacuum is THE AGE OF ADOLESCENCE.

KARL MARX is the godfather of Nerds. MARGERET THATCHER is a godmother of Nerds. The empty head of the grocer's daughter was suddenly filled with a super economic wheeze and she laid waste more of England than all the bombs of the Germans.

What really motivates these Nerds is the deadly vanity that they, not popes and kings and lords, are the TRUE ELITE OF MANKIND. Their ideologies are merely the excuse. Their vanity is deadly because these Nerds lack the virtue of leadership. From Robespierre to Starmer, there is not a Napoleon, not an Alexander, among them. When such egos find themselves in power, they panic. And their power is put to murder. Only naturally-selected leaders can tolerate opposition.

Such is the Age of Vacuum.

6. HATRED. REVOLUTIONS ARE CHANGE BY HATRED. Reform is change by love. Reform revives the old way: Revolution kills the old way. But revolutionary hatred continues after the Revolution: is the fundamental drive of the revolutionary regime. In the young, the generations of revolution have created a new right: THE RIGHT TO HATE; RIGHTEOUS HATRED. The old religions hated heretics, but that was not their primary drive. REVOLUTION IS INCAPABLE OF LOVE

7. HATRED OF THE PAST is a modern nastiness. The past used to be revered: the giver of life. The past became hated because the past refused to become the past like a mother who won't let her baby be born.

But the prime reason REVOLUTION HATES THE PAST is BECAUSE THE PAST FAILED. The old regime or religion had promised and it had not delivered. This revolutionary hatred is what a child feels when his father who had been leading him to the playground suddenly falls down in the street and doesn't get up: he kicks his father to make him get up. Then he kicks his father for abandoning him. Then he kicks his father for being dead. At last he has to leave his father and walk on.

8. Revolutionary hatred is ADOLESCENT. ADOLESCENCE IS THE REJECTION OF AND THE REFUSAL OF AUTHORITY. For example, Atheism is the adolescent punishing God for not existing. First you love, then you hate, finally you forgive.

9. In Revolutionary delusion, hate is liberation.

10. REVOLUTION IS STERILE because hatred is sterile. Revolution is negation of the past. Any positivity or freshness is illusion. REVOLUTION INVERTS THE PAST AND CALLS IT THE FUTURE.

A prisoner turns on his guards, escapes his prison, and in the open, cries out in leaping joy that he is free.

Then what?

ANGLECYNNE ENDS THE AGE OF REVOLUTION.

Anglecynne ends the Age of Adolescence. Anglecynne lets the past go, forgives the past for not being Dad, for being merely human. Anglecynne understands that one cannot become a father until one has forgiven ones father.

Anglecynne takes us HOME TO OUR BIOLOGY, home to the Earth, which is Home because it and not the laboratory is where our survival comes from.

ECONOMISM: THE FOURTH EVIL.

Nor does our survival come from the stock exchange.

Marxism and Thatcherism are merely two manifestations of Economism.
ECONOMISM IS THE RELIGION AND WORSHIP OF ECONOMY.

ECONOMY IS SURVIVAL BY MONEY. Economism is the religious (as opposed to rational) belief that money is survival. Economism believes that any alternative definition of survival, for example biological, is superstition and heresy.

Therefore ECONOMISM VALUES EVERYTHING BY MONEY, nothing by biology: nothing by survival. Economism does not believe in biology; Economism does not believe that biology is reality: Economism believes that Economy is reality. Economism is biological perversion; ECONOMISM IS A PSYCHOSIS. Economism is destroying our life support system. Our life support system is the Green Earth. Economism is Greed, is Conspiracy, but first it is MAD.

THE FAITHFUL OF THIS RELIGION ARE CALLED ECONOMISTS. Economists are NOT just those academic nerds who pretend that greed is a science, but all those who worship Economy.

ECONOMISTS BELIEVE THAT BIOLOGY IS A HOBBY which must not interfere with real life. Economists believe that saving the planet must not be allowed to impede economic growth. Economists believe that planet-savers should get a life. Economists believe that saving the Planet is a game you can play when you've done the real work of the day. Economists believe that the Earth, the living Earth, is not our life support system, is a development opportunity, an amusement park, something to patronise. When Economists see a field, they don't see food, they see a housing estate. Economists believe that people need houses.

ECONOMISTS DO NOT BELIEVE IN THE MASS EXTINCTION EVENT; Economists do not believe that all those dead lives were economically necessary. Anglecynne understands that if you grew up in a bungalow and your parents grew up in a bungalow and your grandparents and their grandparents grew up in a bungalow then the supermarket is your necessity. And wild life and green life are no more than wallpaper. Anglecynne also understands this: as the alcoholic can have his alcohol or his life so YOU CAN HAVE YOUR ECONOMY OR YOU CAN HAVE YOUR LIFE.

ANTI-RACISM IS EVIL.

One of the components of Liberalism, THE THIRD EVIL, is Anti-Racism. Anglecynne hides behind no obfuscation: Anglecynne is founded on the clearest understanding that ANTI-RACISM IS EVIL.

Anti-racism is the madness of which the ancient Greeks spoke when they said that those whom the gods wish to destroy, they first make mad. Why have the gods made the Whiteman mad? Because the Whiteman has got too big. He must be brought down to size. And if there is no enemy to do it, he must do it to himself. Three times the Whiteman has set about his self-destruction: WW1, WW2, and Anti-Racism.

For the ancient Greeks, for our own ancestors and for Anglecynne, to be mad was be outside the limits set down for Humanity; in a word, to be unnatural. ANTI-RACISM IS UNNATURAL. Man is an animal. As such he has AN EVOLVED NATURE. Natural Selection that made the amoeba made Man. All of our humanity is naturally selected. What Anglecynne calls biological perversion, the Greeks called hubris. Hubris is an animal who thinks he is a god, who thinks that it is not Nature which makes the rules, thinks that he can make what rules he likes. Our Christian forebears expressed this truth in their way: the wages of sin is death.

SOCIAL BIOLOGY

Natural Selection is the biological constitution of Man; the immutable constitution, THE TRUE CONSTITUTION, against which the Nerdish or paper constitutions are as vain as a hand trying to slap its way through a mountain. Man is not a snow leopard: MAN IS A SOCIAL SPECIES. Social does not mean coffee morning. Man has a social biology, MAN HAS A NATURALLY SELECTED SOCIAL BIOLOGY.

What is that social biology? Anglecynne looks at history and looks around the World, and sees quite clearly that the social biology of Mankind is the Nation. MAN IS HIS NATIONS.

His nations are his survivability. They are this because HIS NATIONS ARE HIS ADAPTABILITY TO THE EARTH. Inuit is Man adapted to the snow; Aborigine is Man adapted to the sand. They are not interchangeable because snow is not sand. We are not all the same under the skin. We are adapted; we evolve our adaptability. Anglecynne is the recognition and respect of the differences of Man, STARTING WITH OUR OWN. Anglecynne recognises and reveres the nations of Man.

FEED AND DEFEND

The Anti-Racist sneers at Man's evolved social nature, calling it Ethnic Nationalism. Since the beginning, life on Earth has been organised around two drives: feed and defend. EVOLUTION CAN ONLY WORK THROUGH THESE DRIVES. The Rules of Evolution are few. To repeat, they are the conservation of the selected and marginal change. The understanding of these alone should convince you of the deadly perversion that is the Liberalist Revolution. WHAT IS NATURALLY SELECTED MUST BE RESPECTED.

THE NATION IS EARTH, RACE AND WAY.

Let us be clear what is and what is not a nation. I have given you two examples of a nation: Inuit and Aborigine. The nation is adapted to its particular bit of Earth: the Earth chooses the nation: snow is not sand; rainforest is not the temperate forest of the North; island is not savannah. The Race is the naturally selected adaptation to the particular bit of earth as the hands of the pianist are adapted to the piano and the hands of the painter are adapted to the brush. In the past this natural selection of the race was assisted by NATURAL NECESSITY: mountains too high, forests too dense, deserts too wide. Of necessity your bride was one of your own folk. From the Earth, then, as in spring, grew the multitudinous flowers of Humankind. From the soil comes the Way of Life. The genius of Inuit is not the genius of Aborigine; the genius of Chinese is not the genius of Greek. Naturally not.

These geniuses are the true wealth and inheritance of Mankind.

Liberalism/Anti-Racism is determined on their destruction. Not from outside but from within.

YOUR NATION IS YOUR SURVIVAL

This is a social species, therefore survival is collective: THE NATION IS THE COLLECTIVE WHICH ORGANISES YOUR SURVIVAL. None other. Not the United Nations, not the European Union, not political party, not Revolution, not Liberalism, it is the nation which organises your survival. You know this. What is your first thought when you are abroad and something goes wrong? It is to get home. This should teach you your stupidity and irresponsibility: you want your nation to guard you, but you don't guard your nation.

YOUR NATION IS YOUR HOME.

Since the nation is your survival, since the nation is your adaptation, since the nation is your Earth, Race and Way, the nation is your HOME. HOME IS IN OUR GENES. HOME IS NATURALLY SELECTED. HOME is where we are in the RIGHTNESS OF OUR BEING. The round peg in the round hole and not in the square hole.

Therefore Home is deep, as deep as the roots of the tree, as deep as biology. Home has BIOLOGICAL RIGHTS, one of which is the closed door.

Since Home is the naturally selected form of Humanity, Home has BIOLOGICAL DUTIES, one of which is the closed door.

THE GLADNESS OF HOME.

It is time for Mankind to be glad of Home. WISDOM IS TO KNOW YOUR HOME; HAPPINESS IS TO BE AT HOME; PEACE IS EVERY MAN AT HOME.

Consider the sadness of Tuvalu. An island Home that is no longer Home because the Economists have brought flood to Tuvalu, and now the nation must leave or drown. They must go to a bungalow in Sidney Australia to which they have never been adapted. For three thousand years they have been adapted to their atoll and their sea. Weep for Tuvalu as you weep for your own Home. Then turn your tears to repentance and your repentance to work so that Tuvalu shall again be Home.

WHAT IS NOT A NATION.

A random assemblage of persons in a transit lounge is not a nation. The chance survivors of a shipwreck on a desert island is not a nation. THE STATE IS NOT A NATION. Empire is not a nation. Colony is not a nation. Consider this: anybody can become a New Zealander, but nobody can become a Maori who is not born Maori; anybody can become an Australian, but nobody can become an Aborigine who is not born Aborigine. Anybody can become an American, but nobody can become a Native American who is not born Native American. The Native Americans are THE TRUE NATIONS of North America.

Notice who made these Anti-Nations; notice who in making these Anti-Nations destroyed countless true nations. So it is right and proper that the destroyer of nations should destroy himself. Is not the Englishman doing that?

CLOSEDNESS

As a body is not a body without a skin, so a nation is not a nation without exclusivity. CLOSEDNESS IS THE SURVIVAL OF THE BODY: CLOSEDNESS IS THE SURVIVAL OF THE NATION. Anti-bodies, which attack alien invaders, are conserved through the evolution of Mankind including his social evolution. If you do not have an instinct of us and them, if you have an instinct of openness, you are a BIOLOGICAL PERVERT. Guests are most welcome, but after three days, like fish, they stink.

DOMESTIC NATIONALISM

So the Anti-Racists sneer at the nation, calling HOME-LOVE 'ethnic nationalism'. Why only the nation? Why not sneer at the locked front door, calling it 'domestic nationalism'? Notice that in the spare bedrooms of Anti-Racists, there are no illegals. It is not only hypocrisy: IT IS BIOLOGICALLY IMPOSSIBLE TO SUSTAIN LIFE ON THE BASIS OF OPENNESS. If you do have an instinct of openness, you are an unconscious predator. 'Come into my parlour, the door is open,' says the White spider to the Black fly.

THE RACIST REVERES

What is naturally selected is to be respected. The Racist is one who recognises and reveres the races of Man. The Racial Purist is one who recognises the duty of the conservation of the race and chooses the other parent of his children accordingly, in reverence of his forebears, of his people, of his children and their children, of his species, of Life itself that alone gave him life. HAPPINESS

IS TRUTH TO OUR GIVEN NATURE. HAPPINESS IS AT HOME. Let Man come Home as the alcoholic must come to water. So says Anglecynne.

BEWARE THE VAGRANT

Anglecynne recognises the wisdom of all the forebears of Humanity: 'beware the vagrant'. The vagrant can belong anywhere because he belongs nowhere. As the locust flies so does the vagrant. His home is where the honey is. He plants no trees: his long-term is instant gratification. Anglecynne is at one with the wisdom of our forebears: RESTLESSNESS IS THE DEADLIEST ENEMY OF THE PEACE. Anglecynne says what our grandmothers said: when boredom comes, twiddle your thumbs. Don't jump up, rush off and lay waste the Earth.

EARTH RIGHTS

That MAN IS HIS NATIONS is Anglecynne's FOREIGN POLICY. Anglecynne does not recognise the concept of sovereign territory, does not recognise the concept of possession, of state ownership, DOES NOT RECOGNISE THE CONCEPT OF THE STATE. Anglecynne recognises only the concept of EARTH RIGHTS. Earth Rights are THE RIGHT OF NATIONS TO THEIR ANCESTRAL EARTH. Anglecynne recognises that only the nation has sovereign ownership of its ancestral earth. Anglecynne recognises that no lawfulness can deprive them of it. A tribe, possessed of earth, race and way, is a nation. A rainforest clan, possessed of earth, race and way, is a nation.

Anglecynne recognises that ONLY THOSE POSSESSED OF A DEVIL HAND OUT THEIR ANCESTRAL EARTH TO STRANGERS. Their ancestral earth is their FOODLAND: is their SURVIVAL LAND: is their continuing existence.

Anglecynne recognises that WARS ARE FOUGHT BY STATES, whose bosses even now treat the Earth as so much real estate to be fought over like little lordlings each trying to seize the other's manors with the peasantry that goes with them along with the other animals. Anglecynne recognises that it is only devils who sit around a map of Earth and play THE BORDER GAME. The one who throws a double six can put a border wherever he likes. EARTH RIGHTS FIX THE BORDERS.

Democracy has made no difference to this concept of real estate which is the cause of war.

THE AGE OF PEACE

Anglecynne recognises that before THE AGE OF WAR there was THE AGE OF PEACE. In the Age of Peace, Man was glad of Home. In the Age of Peace, Man sought no other man's home. In the Age of Peace, Man was grateful of the good things of Earth. In the age of Peace, enough was as good as a feast. In the Age of Peace, pride was no more than the shadow a stone casts at noontide. In the Age of Peace, Earth was Eden, and Humans were children in awe and reverence, aware of our chosenness, and humble.

AGRICULTURE

Adam ate the apple. The apple was agriculture. Agriculture was the beginning of the concept of ownership. The concept of ownership replaced the concept of necessity. Necessity is of the animal: ownership is of the ego. Necessity is satisfied: ownership is never satisfied. So theft began and envy and weapons and war; and the weeping of women and the male cocks crowing on the dung hills of victory.

Agriculture was also the beginning of the fatal pride that nature has been given to us to play with. And yet at the same time we warned ourselves. The quiet voice of Truth warned us not to entrust our survival to agriculture, as later the Truth in us warned us not to entrust our survival to money. We refused to listen. We were not expelled: we made a desert of Eden.

FITTING IN

Anglecynne intends to bring Man back down to Earth, to see that Man learns at last the old lesson that BIOLOGY, not Man, IS THE BOSS. Wisdom, Peace, Happiness and Survival is NOT TO DOMINATE NATURE but TO FIT IN.

MAN HAS NO ENEMY BUT MAN.

The man who is now THE ENEMY OF MAN IS THE LIBERALIST/ECONOMIST, the left hand and right hand of hate. Come Revolution, out goes Love. Revolution is a young man who has been kept chained by his father, who breaks his chains and with them strangles his father. REVOLUTIONARY HATRED NOW REACHES DOWN TO THE VERY ROOTS OF LIFE ITSELF: genetic engineering; the redundancy of bio-diversity; gender reform; puberty blockers; social engineering; permissiveness; Anti-Racism.

THE INTERFERERS

A hundred thousand Auschwitzs do not equal THE EVIL OF THE INTERFERERS, these bigger than God, these demonic children who play with our evolved nature as if it has been given to them for Christmas. Pol Pot is their High Priest. Year Zero is their Mecca. They are to smash the vessel of life to pieces and put the pieces back together again: Oh Brave New World: Oh Humpty Dumpty. See already in the making the triumph of their achievement: see the melting ice, the rising seas, the drowned islands, the burning forests, the spreading deserts, the sun-scorched crops, the poisoned earth, the bird-empty skies, the little creatures quivering in chemical death; see the breaking of the fragile Human Peace like a dam; see the bloody chaos; see the streets of ancient peace crowded with murder; see the passers-by stepping over the normal corpses; see the police dressed like science fiction; see the judges in their wigs ranting in the show trials of freedom; see the hospitals crammed with the achievements of permissiveness; see the old men playing with their toys and none to change their nappies; see the Unlearned pouring, innumerate and illiterate, from the schools and universities of hatred; see the social workers prowling the night, seeking children to snatch; see the epidemics of demented children; see three little murdered girls.

LOVE MUST FIGHT THEM

Love must grab them by the scruff of the neck and rub their Pol Pot noses in the Hell they've made of their Year Zero World. Love must come Home. ANGLECYNNE IS LOVE, shrivelled and emaciated, picking herself up from the dust, arming herself to fight. RIGHT TO FIGHT. MUST FIGHT. Must fight BOTH or no survival. Hence Anglecynne (as opposed to Anglophobia, usually called Anti-Racism). Anglecynne is the name of our kindred AND the name of our ancestral earth. ONE name for both. NO EARTH: NO NATION.

It also expresses the compulsive BIOLOGICAL DRIVE TO BELONG RETURNED TO BIOLOGY from artificial, egotistic, destinations of that drive such as ideologies, corporations, empires and golf clubs.

THE HISTORY OF ANTI-RACISM

Since ANTI-RACISM IS so clearly A DECLARATION OF WAR ON HUMAN NATURE, what is its history?

EMPIRE IS ADDICTION

There is no addiction like pride. In the Age of Peace, nations had known about the egotistical need for superiority i.e. pride. They had known it as the deadly enemy of the peace. Their wisdom was not in books but in their social arrangements: to keep the devil of pride safely locked in Hell. Then came agriculture and ownership and pride was let out of Hell. There is no pride like THE PRIDE OF EMPIRE. There is no empire like the British Empire. We crowed on the dunghill of it: the empire was the proof our superiority. The miser clings to his gold; the alcoholic clings to his alcohol. Our empire was our miser's gold, our alcohol. We were no longer English, we were the British of the British Empire.

THE PATRONISING EMPIRE

YOU DON'T JUST WALK AWAY FROM AN ADDICTION: WE COULDN'T JUST WALK AWAY FROM EMPIRE. But after 1945, the World was a different place: we were broke and bombed and exhausted and suddenly small between two global giants: WE COULDN'T KEEP EMPIRE BUT WE COULDN'T LET IT GO. Resolve, please. In the past, failing empires hung on to their colonies by bloody persecution of the natives fighting to be free. But we couldn't do that. Nazism was our guide to the Wrong Way to hang on to empire. We found the Right Way in the very heart of our belief in our superiority. What the addicted imperialists instinctively understood was that there are two ways to be superior i.e. two ways to pride. The common way is by domination. Big muscle dominates small muscle. More guns dominate less guns. Iron Age dominates Stone Age. The French call it force majeure. But there is the other way to superiority. The teacher is superior to his pupils. The doctor is superior to his patients. The Good Samaritan is superior to the one he rescues. MOTHER IS SUPERIOR TO HER CHILDREN. That was what the addicted imperialists understood. And THAT WAS THEIR NEW WAY OF EMPIRE. No longer the Father Empire, we had no longer the strength to sustain that. Now THE MOTHER EMPIRE, the Mother Hen with her fluffy chicks. A passionate motherly protectiveness replaced the old paternal arrogance. Thus the addicted imperialists kept hold of their empire by BENDING it. Make no mistake, you cannot patronise people without being superior to them; you patronise your inferiors.

PATRONISING IS THE NEW LOVE. ANTI-RACISM IS THE PATRONISING EMPIRE. ANTI-RACISM IS WHITE SUPERIORITY BENT TO MAINTAIN WHITE SUPERIORITY. 'They will always need us because they can't look after themselves. They will always need us to look after them, cherish them, cuddle them, protect them from Racists. They are our children for ever' – even while they are murdering three little girls.

The honest therapist tells the two who are in a poisonous relationship, 'you must just walk away'. That's exactly what we could not do. We couldn't walk away from 'our Blacks'. We couldn't let them go. We couldn't find the heroic moral courage, the manhood, to let empire go simply and cleanly, and go home, to be a little people, unimportant English in unimportant England. We couldn't let them go; we couldn't stay, SO WE BROUGHT THEM HOME WITH US.

Thus is THE BIRTH OF ANTI-RACISM; thus is the most bizarre phenomenon in Human history; a nation sets about its self-destruction to sustain an empire it no longer has because it can't find the moral courage TO MIND ITS OWN BUSINESS.

What began as a moral cowardice is now a raging psychosis.

WORKING CLASS OPPOSITION TO IMMIGRATION

When a human goes wrong, he does not stop, retreat and go right: he goes on going wrong, going wronger and wronger. So Anti-Racism. THE NEXT STEP DOWN into our new psychosis was when the new way of racial superiority, Bent-Imperialism, ran into opposition. The working class, the vast majority in other words, were downright opposed to the migration of the children of empire who were no longer the children of empire into the motherland that was no longer the motherland. The working class proclaimed the moral truth that 'IF INDIA IS INDIAN, BRITAIN IS BRITISH'. The middle class zealots were enraged; 'How dare they, how dare they think for themselves, how dare they oppose? And aren't they sinister compared to "our Blacks"?'

THE BENT-IMPERIALISTS BECAME AGGRESSIVE

Like a drinker when he thinks someone is trying to take his bottle away from him.

IN SEARCH OF AN EXCUSE AND A NAME

The Bent-Imperialists were cunning. They used the memory of Adolf Hitler: IT'S NOT THE IMMIGRANT YOU OPPOSE, IT'S HIS RACE: YOU'RE A RACIST.

AND AS WE ARE ANTI-HITLER SO WE ARE ANTI-RACIST. And as you are not Anti-Racist so you are Nazi.

And so Bent-White-Supremacy, the cowardly inability to let empire go, disguised itself as a noble and virtuous fight against 'Racism'. Opposition to immigration became SAME AS NAZISM. The very nature of Mankind as it has evolved by natural selection became 'same as Nazism'. HOME-LOVERS BECAME 'RACISTS'. HOME-LOVE BECAME 'RACISM'.

PROPAGANDA LIE

So now instead of recognising THE INEVITABLE AND NATURAL TENSION BETWEEN NATIVES AND THE INVITED INVADERS, they could hide the truth behind their lying and self-deceiving terminology of 'race relations' and 'racial tension' AS IF THE INVITED INVADERS HAD ALWAYS BEEN HERE: AS NATIVE AS THE NATIVES. And only the White Native was refusing to acknowledge the 'Black Native' like one who refuses to acknowledge his brother.

And yet when I was young, I couldn't be a racist because THERE WAS NO ONE TO BE RACIST TO, just us, the English.

THE THEFT OF ENGLISH NATIONAL IDENTITY

The theft of English national identity begins here. The theft is an inevitable logical consequence of the original wrong. 'From Immigrant Boy to English Man' by George Alagiah. This is hatred in a book. Anglecynne warns you to beware of this hatred. Mark David Chapman murdered John Lennon because he knew that he, Mark David Chapman, was John Lennon, and the sight of John Lennon told him he wasn't.

ANTI-RACISM BECAME DOGMA

It became an ideology, a doctrine, a truth, a religion, a church.

PERSECUTION

Anti-Racism commenced persecution. Laws were passed. Opposition was reviled, the new pariah, the new unclean, the 'Racist'. The zealot outwears the normal man, who wants not to get involved, who in any case had never had it so good, and who enjoys a witch hunt, so he kept his head down, kept quiet

AND LET THE ZEALOTICS GET ON WITH IT.

PARANOIA

Anti-Racism, like all addictions, all psychoses, is powered from within, is powered by paranoia. Paranoia sees what it looks for. Anti-Racist paranoia sees 'Racism' everywhere, even in nursery rhymes.

Of course it does: REALITY IS RACIST.

THE LIBERALIST REVOLUTION

Then came the 1960s and the Liberalist Revolution, and ANTI-RACISM BECAME THE PERFECT EXCUSE OF THE YOUNG.

Revolutions overthrow the past with hatred and murder. IN ENGLAND THE LIBERALIST REVOLUTION BROUGHT IN A HATRED OF EVERYTHING ENGLISH. Progressive as of a disease, it went deeper. Over time THE LIBERALIST REVOLUTION OVERTHREW THE WHOLE PAST OF MAN, smashed the lot and stamped on the bits.

Like its predecessor Evils, the Liberalist Revolution was a honey-trap. The fools rushed in.

PERMISSIVENESS, CONSUMERISM, ANTI-RACISM and THE CULT OF THE FOREVER CHILD are the honey-trap. In an older language, we would have described them as four smiling devils taking up residence in an empty soul. The soul was empty because the past was spiritually bankrupt. All strictly logical: if the Way has failed, Not-The-Way must be the Way.

Permissiveness is not introduced out of love. Permissiveness is the Revolutionary hatred of the past.

PERMISSION IS NOT FREEDOM. Permissiveness is compulsory. Hatred of Christianity is compulsory.

THE LIBERATION OF SELFISHNESS

Permissiveness is the CULT OF PERSONAL IRRESPONSIBILITY. The Permissive Revolution is the revolution that liberates the ego from all the chains of the past. Permissiveness teaches the Revolutionary Truth that self-repression is sickness and self-expression is health. There is no morality except the stirrings of your loins. The World, indeed the Universe, is to be re-arranged around the stirrings of your loins. There is no other point of view than yours: self-awareness or conscience is dumped along with all your other chains. Nothing exists objectively, independent of your attitude, only as you like it or fear it.

But this revolution is not a regression; it is a self-debasement, a gesture of rage, a child's sulk done up as an ideology. In the Liberalist topsy-turvy Revolution, parents seek the approval of their children, children patronise their parents; children are as rude and morose as embittered old men; and no one believes in the future.

PERMISSIVENESS OPENED PANDORA'S BOX.

The Permissive Revolution is the dumping of millennia of the evolution of a survivable personality for Humans so prone to self-destruction. The old personal morality of Mankind was deemed necessary for personal well-being. But of course in a social species it was also deemed essential for the well-being of the biological collective. The effect on the biological collective of the permissive inversion of a personal self-denying morality (Daddy's 'no' replaced by Mummy's 'yes') has been like a ship on the rocks, wave after wave has broken it to pieces. Since the biological collectives are the consolation and sanity of individuals, their weakening by the hugely popular cult of Permissiveness has released an endemicity of addictions and breakdowns and psychoses, especially among children, who wander among the wreckage of family, society and nation, crying for the safety of a seaworthy ship.

Permissiveness is EVERY MAN FOR HIMSELF. Oh, make no mistake, 'caring for others' simply means patronising others. We know this because we care for others only so long as it makes us feel superior. Permissiveness is productive of misery and loneliness, the most this England has ever suffered, so off we go to the women-markets of Asia to purchase our family, society and nation. Permissiveness is productive of sexual disease, the most this England has ever suffered. Permissiveness is productive of a desperation of greed; greed is productive of crime, the most criminality this England has ever suffered. Permissiveness is productive of pimp, punter and whore, the only relationship that flourishes under Permissiveness, and productive of the most debasement and perversion of taste this England has ever suffered. Permissiveness is productive of lost souls who enter false therapies which entice them deeper into their egotism instead of booting them out to weed the cabbages.

SUPERMARKET SMUGNESS

The Liberalist Revolution flourishes only among the biologically alienated. The biologically alienated are those who have lost the SENSE OF DANGER. THE SHOPPER SYNDROME causes this psychosis. The Shopper Syndrome is the belief that food comes from shops. Another name for this psychosis is Economism. Upon this psychosis whole states plan their futures. Children are not born with a sense of danger. They invest it in their adults, who exercise on their behalf the survival virtue of caution. The temporary success of scientific technology has degenerated the survival virtue of caution, replacing it with triumphalism, smugness and complacency. Along comes Liberalism and makes an ideology out of these psychoses. Adulthood is no longer necessary: Liberalism is the Abolition of Adulthood. Adulthood is replaced by the Forever Child and a coven-cult of she-priests, themselves incapable of motherhood, whose love is the deadliest hatred: you are allowed to do everything you like except live.

THE CULT OF THE FOREVER CHILD

The Cult of the Forever Child is not just permission, it is THE COMMANDMENT TO REFUSE ADULTHOOD.

The Cult of the Forever Child is hugely popular. THE HATRED AND REFUSAL OF ADULTHOOD is hugely popular. Believing that you are someone else's responsibility is hugely popular. Believing that the planet is a playroom is hugely popular. Believing that the purpose of life is to play with your toys is hugely popular. The Liberalist Law that maximum maturity and fulfilment is reached when you have found your partner for mutual masturbation is hugely popular.

Psychotic childishness is the result. 'Run up to the bridge, push the steersman aside and play at ships', cry the she-priests. Egotistical blindness is the result. 'Never mind if it's grade A land, it's your toy, and if you want to play at 'rewilding', don't let Daddy stop you', cry the she-priests. England now is the slum that spoilt children make of their playroom.

Permissiveness demands Consumerism. Consumerism is to scrabble about in the dust at the last end of the road desperate for a glint.

THE HATRED OF CHILDREN

The Cult of the Forever Child is the hatred of children. The child is adult-in-the-making. The recognition of this is biological truth: the recognition of this is love of the child. Liberalism is the refusal of this: Liberalism is the hatred of the child.

THE HATRED AND REFUSAL OF LIFE.

The Cult of the Forever Child is not just the hatred of the past that used to be revered as the giver of life, the Cult of the Forever Child is the hatred of the whole Human past, is the hatred of the whole biological past, is the hatred of life itself. Liberalism is not a death-wish. If you can't live by love, you must live by hatred. When the Perfect Way turns out to be imperfect, you do not simply let it go, you cling to it by hatred. Hatred is the last clinging to the failed Way. In fear of the future you cling to the past even when it is time to let it go. You cling to it by hatred; you cling to it by punishment; you cling to it by a rage of rejection. What else is the Cult of the Forever Child?

BIOLOGICAL DUTY

You are not a signed-up Liberalist if the word duty does not make you snigger. You are not a signed-up Liberalist if the word responsibility does not make you sneer. You are not a signed-up Liberalist if the phrase respect for the past does not make you look around for a Racist. You are not a signed-up Liberalist if the phrase leave something for the future does not put you in a towering rage.

Life will not be played with: LIFE IS DANGEROUS.

LIFE IS BIOLOGICAL DUTY. You received it: you pass it on. That is adulthood. This is not compulsion; this is not choice. This is before compulsion/choice. This is the way of nature. The way of nature is the Rightness of Being, is the way of happiness. Happiness is being true to life, dutiful, faithful, as the sparrow is.

The Liberalist Revolution rejects all this with rage, loathing and hatred. The Liberalist Revolution is like a hammer taken by an enraged child with which he smashes the works of his father's favourite clock.

THE CRISIS OF MAN

Why has Mankind come at last to mere hatred? And I mean Mankind. DISAPPOINTMENT: that's why. Life is disappointing. So many promises made, all broken. So many hopes, all come to dust. What has science actually achieved? Ask Tuvalu. Rage is all that's left. RAGE IS THE LAST DEFENCE AGAINST DESPAIR.

Isn't rage why Moslems murder? Unable to recognise their own loss of faith, they must find it out there in the Infidels, and if they can destroy those infidels then they will never need to recognise their truth.

Isn't rage the only explanation of the Liberalist Revolution, called Enlightenment?

ANTI-RACISM GETS NASTIER

After the Revolution of the 1960s, Anti-Racism becomes an evil deeper than merely Whiteman clinging to White Superiority by bending it. THE ANTI-RACISTS OF ENLIGHTENMENT LOVE OTHER RACES SO THEY CAN HATE THEIR OWN (clinging by hatred).

Attention is turned from the Mothering of the Racial Children. It is turned to the Enemy of the Mothering. No, not the Racist. Where does the Racist come from? From the Whiteman. The problem of the Racist is the problem of the Whiteman. THE PROBLEM OF THE WHITEMAN NEEDS A SOLUTION.

Despite appearances ALL THE SOLUTIONS ARE IN FACT TEACHING THE WHITEMAN TO HATE HIMSELF.

AWARENESS TRAINING

The first of the solution is Awareness Training. Such training, when other people do it, is commonly called BRAIN-WASHING. Awareness training is 'you must be aware of other races and their special needs, you must be open to them, welcoming, sharing. When abroad you must respect them by speaking their language; when in England you must respect them by speaking their language'.

MULTICULTURALISM

The Second of the Solution is Multiculturalism. Multiculturalism is shoving some Englishness off the English bench to make room for foreignness. Multiculturalism is not multicultural: IT TOLERATES NO OPPOSITION. Multiculturalism is CULTURAL INVASION.

INTEGRATION

The Third of the Solution is Integration. Integration is shoving English bottoms off the English bench to make room for foreign bottoms. In practice integration is THE INTERNAL EXPULSION OF THE ENGLISH.

ANTI-EDUCATION

The Fourth of the Solution is Anti-Education. Anti-Education is education for ignorance and stupidity. In the past, kings refused to allow the people to be educated because it would give them ideas above their station. Liberalist education goes one better: it gives the people education so that they won't have any ideas at all. This education is called Child-Centred Education. According to the dogma of Child-Centred Education, teaching is oppression.

An example of why true teachers teach children to think, and why Liberalist teachers refuse to teach thinking:- Here is a statistic: over 90% of England is owned by Whites. How shockingly racist. Now, if you have been taught to think, you will have spotted the dirty trick. It's in the name. Change the name: over 90% of England is owned by the English.

Being taught to think is being taught to beware of names. Anglecynne Education is THE RECTIFICATION OF NAMES. Out go White, British, Britain. In come English, England, Angle, Anglecynne. Anglecynne Education opens the eyes: Britain no longer exists; the United Kingdom is broken up.

Anglecynne Education exposes the deadly trap: anybody can become British. BUT NOBODY IS ENGLISH EXCEPT THE ENGLISH.

MASS IMMIGRATION

The Fourth of the Solution is Mass Immigration. The immigrant's loyalty is not to England, it is to Anti-Racism. The Immigrants believe that Anti-Racism is England. When they learn that Anti-Racism is an ideology and not a nation, they will cling to Anti-Racism, they will become Fundamentalists like those Moslems who murder. Remember the rectification of names: NOT RACISM BUT HOME-LOVE; not White versus Black but Native versus Settler.

MISCEGENATION

The Fifth of the Solution is miscegenation. Because biology is deeper than ideology, the child of mixed race is aware of being different. Nobody needs to tell him: he knows. He will seek a refuge from his knowledge. Where else but in Anti-Racism? He will become a Fundamentalist.

PERMISSIVENESS

The Sixth of the Solution is Permissiveness. Permissiveness has exacerbated the appetites of the native, and the pursuit of their gratification has uprooted him and made him vagrant in his own home. Driven by the biological imperative to belong but perverted, the native vagrant seeks it not at Home but in Permissiveness which justifies him and brings with it membership of the Anti-Racist Anti-Family. The Anti-Family is the CULT of Anti-Racism. Clinging to the cult in his biological loneliness, the Native Vagrant will become a Fundamentalist. Like Moslem Fundamentalists, he will seek to destroy the Infidel. In this case the Infidel happens to be himself as Englishman.

THE WELFARE STATE

The Seventh of the Solution is the Welfare State. The Welfare State was set up by the same people who invented Anti-Racism, Permissiveness and Anti-Education. The intent of the Welfare State is dependence on the state instead of dependence on oneself: CHILDISH DEPENDENCE will never threaten the state.

The individual's dependence on the state is also designed to make the family redundant.

Such people can be trusted with the vote.

A PERPETUAL MAJORITY

The shared intent of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh of the solution is to create a perpetual majority of ANTI-RACIST FUNDAMENTALISTS.

Fundamentalism is the final and most dangerous phase of a belief. Fundamentalism clings to the truth of the belief against the growing conviction that it is false. Fundamentalism is the rage that is the last defence against despair. Obviously this rage is not directed at the belief but at the questioners, the sceptics, the doubters. Moslem fundamentalism is the most visible specimen of this phase of belief. But Anti-Racism is entering it as more and more English are beginning to dare to question Anti-Racism.

(When the Fundamentalist can rage no further at the Enemies of Truth, the Fundamentalist does not let go his rage, he turns his rage on the Truth itself. And now he is a Revolutionary.)

Intellectual addiction is more dangerous than chemical addiction.

In the end, to live you have to let addiction go.

REVISIONISM

The Eighth of the Solution is Revisionism. Anti-Racism has learnt this from the Communists. History had to conform to Marxism: now history must conform to Anti-Racism. The past was Whiteman pride: now the past is Whiteman loathing. The Anti-Racist Rewritten Past is a living hell where Whiteman raped his daughters and buggered his boys, and most horrible of all, he said boo to a Black.

THE DENIAL OF THE ENGLISH

The Ninth of the Solution is the Denial of the English. The English never existed: we English are figments of our racist imagination. The English are written out of English history: there was a Celtic Age, a Roman Age, a Saxon age, a Viking Age, a Norman Age, a Middle Age, a Modern Age and no English Age. The English are wave after wave of immigration: we're all immigrants here.

This of course is GENOCIDE.

THE NEW PURITANISM

The Tenth of the Solution is the New Puritanism. Anti-Education declares that Teaching is Oppression. But Anti-Education also declares that Indoctrination is Liberation: ‘You White children are borne unclean; White is unclean. You must clean yourselves. You must learn the White wickedness within you. You must expel the White wickedness and be Born-Again in the cleanliness of the eternal Enlightenment that is Liberalist Anti-Racism’.

Of course this seems quite right to the revolutionary Forever Child, who is now justified in his hatred and refusal of his life-duty.

SNIGGERING MOCKERY

The Eleventh of the Solution is Sniggering Mockery of all things English. We English must learn to be more foreign. In any case nothing English is English: it’s all borrowed from foreigners.

DEMONIC SOPHISTRY

The Twelfth of the Solution is a Demonic Sophistry. The Demonic Sophistry to hang on to the doctrine of the niceness of foreigners in the light of all evidence to the contrary. After every settler murder of natives, the Anti-Racists denounce the resultant anger: ‘it’s only an excuse to hate people of other races.’

The Demonic Sophists are busiest defending Murderous Muslims. It started with Islam’s fame for tolerance. They soon had to drop that. Then they invented the name Islamist whereby a Muslim is a different Muslim when he is murdering in the name of Islam. When this grew stale, they invented a mystical mumbo-jumbo unknown to psychology called radicalisation, whereby a healthy-minded young man from a healthy family is suddenly confronted by an Islamic Svengali who hypnotises the young man with his hypnotic eye, and off goes the young man, straps a bomb to his chest and destroys himself in his holy hatred of Humanity. Their latest attempt to deny the truth of murderous Muslims is called Islamophobia, a condition unknown to medical science, whereby if you see a Muslim murdering a human being, it’s your fault.

Murderous Muslim is one thing: the suffering of the Palestinians is another thing. Justice does not muddle issues.

THE POLICE STATE

The Thirteenth of the Solution is the Police State, of which more anon.

THE FINAL SOLUTION

The Fourteenth of the Solution is the Final Solution.

And all because the English could not let Empire go and had to bring it home with them.

BENT-NAZISM

Anglecynne calls on you to OPEN YOUR EYES and see the danger you are in. See the logic, the INEVITABILITY, of the journey down the Wrong Way from the moral weakness of not walking away from the poisonous relationship that is White Imperialism, via the incremental mothering of other races, via the Life-Refusal of the revolutionary young in order to punish Life for being so pointless, via the demonization of the White Past, via that demonization being relocated in the presently living people, to an extremism of hatred of those presently living people so extreme that its name is no longer Anti-Racism, is now BENT-NAZISM.

Consider anti-bodies. Anti-bodies defend the body from alien invasion. But if they went mad they might defend the alien invader from the body. That's Bent-Nazism. Here's an example of Bent-Nazism. A revolutionary youth was listening to a naturalist describing the attempts to save the native red squirrel from extinction by the alien grey squirrel. He described these attempts as 'like Racism'. In other words he believed that the naturalist's duty was to let the native species die so the invader species could live.

This belief is madness. This belief in practice is biological perversion down to the very roots of life.

The duty to resist invasion has become the wrong to resist invasion has become the duty to invite invasion has become the duty to defend the invaders has become the duty to expel the natives to accommodate the invaders has become to duty to hear the complaints of the expelled natives as the rantings of 'Racists' has become the duty to begin to find a Final Solution to the problem of 'Racists', who are now renamed 'White Terrorists'.

To the Bent-Nazis, the complaining natives are as the Jews were to the old Nazis. Three little girls were murdered recently, three little innocent girls, yet more murders of the natives by the settlers, a crime as near to Satan as the Human can get. But that aroused in the Anti-Racists a cold indifference. What did arouse them was the rioting in protest. How would Nazis react to the murder of three little Jewish girls? A cold indifference. How would the Nazis react to crowds of Jews rioting in protest at the murder of three little Jewish girls? So reacted the Anti-Racists. Read the Wikipedia article on the riots. Bent-Nazi is the name because it is the correct diagnosis.

Rage is fiery. Hatred is frozen rage. Frozen rage becomes cold indifference. Cold indifference goes to Wannsee. How many steps are there between the Bent-Nazi persecution of Lucy Connolly and the opening of the first detention camp on an abandoned airfield near an English village, called officially a 'Rural Residential Re-Education Centre'?

And all because we English could not let empire go. All because we could not accept that the other races and nations of Humanity didn't need us to run their lives for them. Anglecynne accepts. Anglecynne knows how to mind its own business. Anglecynne will fight the genocide of the English by the Bent-Nazi English.

THE FIRST ENEMY OF THE ENGLISH

Anglecynne knows the First Enemy of the English. Anglecynne knows that I AM the First Enemy of the English. I cannot reform Humanity UNTIL I HAVE REFORMED MYSELF. I am the Consumer; the Consumer is the Earth-Killer: I am the Earth-Killer. Stop thinking conspiracy. Conspiracy is someone to change so you don't have to change yourself. Consider BP, an Earth-Killer if ever there was one. Who empowers BP? I do, every time I buy petrol. If I stop buying petrol, BP dies like one deprived of oxygen. So don't blame BP: blame the buyer of petrol.

Consumerism is a symptom of sickness. The sickness is boredom. Boredom is despair in disguise. Despair is the Dead End of the Life Improvers. What shall we do now that we have Improved Life? We shall go shopping. Adam and Eve wide-eyed in the morning of Eden now go shopping in the Dark Night of their disappointment.

Where next for Adam and Eve, the disappointed Life-Improvers?

A choice: EXTINCTION OR HOME.

To get Home, I shall have to tell the truth: I HAVEN'T IMPROVED LIFE.

To tell this life-saving truth, I shall have to forgive Life for being such a bore.

Forgiveness comes when the boredom of not shopping is exceeded by the boredom of shopping.

Out they hurtle from Hell, the united Devils of Liberalism and Economism.
'Don't listen to him, he only wants to spoil your fun.'

With forgiveness comes The Appalling Revelation: 'Oh God, what have we done?'

With forgiveness comes LOVE REBORN and the energy to begin the undoing of what we have done.

With Love Reborn comes the first glimmerings of the answer to the ONE AND ONLY QUESTION: Why did Evolution summon forth this prodigal freak, this primate Man?

Why, if not to be the Keeper of the Temple of the Flowering Earth? Why, if not to be the Guardian of the infant's laughter, of the wing-clapping dove, of the eagle soaring on a thermal, of the patient sparrow, dishevelled after the long baby-feeding day? Why, if not to be the Keeper of the River of Life, continuous since the beginning, that it shall not dry to dust, shall flow on through my life and onwards till I see it no more and turn for home, my duty done? He is not dead; he has returned to the Good whence he came.

THE MONEY-TRAP.

Anglecynne is not blind. Despite the warnings of our ancestors, we have shut ourselves in the Money-Trap. The Money-Trap is to depend on money for your survival. Think of it, you have utterly lost control over your own survival: your survival is now in a plastic card.

The Money-Trap is to be dependent on imported food. Dependence on imported food is dependence upon the global economy. If the global economy falters, we starve. The global economy is destroying the Earth. If the global economy doesn't falter, we starve.

THE CRASH OF MAN

Anglecynne intends to get out of it before it is too late. Anglecynne's prime intent is to prevent what is coming: the Crash of Man. Anglecynne intends to regain English control over English survival. As far as the economy is concerned, this requires a very careful exit as from a building built so tall that even if you brush your elbow against a wall, the whole lot comes crashing down.

REALITY-AWARENESS

Reality-Awareness is to replace the 'Awareness' brainwashing of Liberalism – is to replace Liberalism – and Economism. The English are alienated from reality. This alienation began with industrialisation and the expulsion of the earth-rooted small-holders from their earth, and their life-long imprisonment in the industrial slums. This is not just a political event, this is a biological event. Alienation worsened with the movement from the industrial slums to the suburbs. The Suburban is so alienated (that is to say, so infected with the Shopping Syndrome) that he might as well come from another planet. Margaret Thatcher is the right name for this disease. (It should be noted that survival-shopping did not begin until industrialization.) The severest form of this disease is when the Suburban moves into his dream cottage, bringing all his alienation with him. Thus he now occupies the very cottage his forebears were driven from. But he is as different from his forebear as a Martian is from an Earthling. How glad he is of his spaceship so he can hurtle back to his home planet to replenish his survival rations. The appalling truth is that the deeper you go into green England the further you are from food. To know this is the first step towards Reality-Awareness. The second step is to be very frightened. The third step is TO KNOW WHERE YOUR FOOD COMES FROM. The fourth step is to keep your sharpest eye on it. The fifth step is to bring food-growing back home. The sixth step is to reduce the population.

The measure of our English alienation is the difference between the two different occupiers of the same cottage. It is as if Death has driven out Life and taken up residence. Or to put it another way, it is as if the Child has driven out the Man and taken up residence in the Child's Playhouse. Put the three similes together and what you get is a living Man driven out by a dead Child from an alien planet.

The House is the abode of alienation. The House is another achievement of our English genius. We English were the first people TO PUT OUR TRUST IN MONEY. Hence the House. The House takes survival for granted. The House is connected to survival BY MONEY ALONE. YOU CANNOT LIVE IN A HOUSE. Hence the House's rapid descent to playhouse-coffin. Even in its beginning, when at least it was good to look at, the House was NO HOME, was unfit for family, fit for selfishness, fit for degenerate Romeo and Juliet. Especially for Juliet, whose ego-nest it is, snug and safe and watertight like a cabin on the Titanic. Anglecynne intends that not one more house shall be built. We English will have to learn how to build and live in apartments like the Continentals. Moreover Anglecynne intends the unbuilding of millions of houses. The House is the cancer of Earth.

MONEY IS NOT WEALTH

Anglecynne knows that money is not wealth. Anglecynne knows that money is the value of nothing: SURVIVAL IS THE VALUE OF EVERYTHING. Anglecynne knows that FOOD IS WEALTH. Food should never have been caught up in money. Money is a game: food is real life. Anglecynne intends that English food growing is no longer governed by money: is governed only by necessity.

LAND ABUSE

Anglecynne intends the end of Land Abuse. LAND IS SURVIVAL and nothing else. Anglecynne intends that it is TREASON AGAINST SURVIVAL to abuse land. Anglecynne intends the return of the old concept of FOLKLAND: the nation owns the land: the land is for the survival of the English.

RE-GREENING AND UNBUILDING

Furthermore Anglecynne intends a National Regreening of Land, which includes something inevitable if Humanity is to survive, Unbuilding. Anglecynne intends to set science to work to repent of the wrong it has done Mankind.

Anglecynne intends the creation of true science at last: THE SCIENCE OF BRINGING DEAD LAND BACK TO LIFE.

Anglecynne is not a fool: it takes ten minutes to kill a tree, it takes a hundred years to grow it. Anglecynne intends that all school leavers shall do two years National Gardening Service. Thereafter all adults shall do National Gardening Service one day a week. Anglecynne intends the re-afforestation of the vast upland wastes of England. Anglecynne knows that NATURE IS PROFOUNDLY RACIST, intends to teach the Royal Horticultural Society not to praise but to curse the plant hunters. What nature has put asunder, let no man join together. But the Whiteman has, and the Whiteman must undo it.

THE SENSE OF DANGER

Anglecynne intends the end of childishness; Anglecynne intends to instil in Humanity what the child does not need but the parent does: the sense of danger. Anglecynne says 'stop playing games'. The child values everything by like/dislike. The parent knows that like/dislike is the value of nothing: survival is the value of everything. Anglecynne intends to set up without delay twelve month food storage. Money will not store food because it is too expensive. Anglecynne intends that imports come in, are stored, go out, so there is always a year's supply in store. It takes a year to grow a crop. Old food is better than no food.

Anglecynne will allow nothing to get in the way of the restoration of English food-growing. Anglecynne knows the right relationship of our farmers and ourselves: they grow it, we eat it. Anglecynne knows that food is too cheap. The farmer is to be tax-free. Anglecynne insists that the farmer returns to responsibility: he is not in it for the money. The farm is his: the land is ours. Anglecynne will put farms back together again into viable units, and will ask nobody's permission, so, meanwhile, Anglecynne advises you not to buy your play field.

REDUCTION OF POPULATION

Anglecynne knows that the wise nation lives off its own. Anglecynne demands Reduction of Population. To save the English from the Crash of Man, the increase of food production must be partnered by the decrease of population. If the nation does not do it, nature will.

THE LAW OF THE LIFEBOAT

There is a law so obvious only the Forever Child refuses it. This is the Law of the Lifeboat. The lifeboat holds thirty. Thirty on board: thirty survive. Thirty-one on board: thirty-one drown. NATURE NOT MAN DECIDES THE POPULATION.

Who goes? Not the English. Nobody can kick the English out of England. But the English can kick everybody else out. This is the right of the family. The right of the family is deep, as deep as biology. Anglecynne returns allegiance to biology. Anglecynne refuses to recognise the concept of state and citizen. Anglecynne recognises only the family and the greater family which is the nation.

The Billionaires out first, to show we mean business. The Bent-Nazi pimps have prostituted this England: a whorehouse in which there is nothing that is not for sale.

THE PERMANENT GUEST

The Bent-Nazis and their predecessors the Anti-Racists have invented the concept of the Permanent Guest. They are a satanic Father Christmas who not content to push gifts down foreign chimneys, invites the foreign children to come and live in Christmas-land. No wonder the foreign children will do anything to get to Christmas-land, where every day is Christmas Day, and the only shadow on the sunlight is the Racist formerly called Englishman.

The Permanent Guests are parasites on a psychosis.

THE RULE OF POSSIBILITY

The Law of the Lifeboat has a variant. The variant is the Rule of Possibility. The Rule of Possibility states that no law is lawful which has not made certain that it is possible, indeed reasonable, to obey it. The Rule of Possibility rules that THE RIGHT OF REFUGEES IS NO RIGHT since it is clearly impossible to honour it. And Anglecynne notes that the Refugee Right derives from the patronising Liberals of the Victorian Age.

The Rule of Possibility rules that the World Trade Organisation is the Enemy of Survival. Remember, we are not confronted by conspiracy: we are confronted by the madness that refuses the truth.

FOREIGN POLICY

Anglecynne has a Foreign Policy. IF I WANT MY ENGLAND, THE PALESTINIAN WANTS HIS PALESTINE. Man is his nations: Earth Rights: Every Man has his Anglecynne.

England is enough for me. Wisdom is to know your Home; happiness is to be at Home; peace is every man at Home.

Anglecynne will RECOGNISE the Nationhood and Earth Right of such occupied and oppressed peoples as the Palestinians, Tibetans and Kurds. Anglecynne recognises the fact of the state as it recognises the fact of dinosaurs, but refuses recognition of such dinosaurian concepts as state sovereignty, property, title, ownership and possession. Having got rid of the king, it is time to get rid of his instinct of royal property.

Anglecynne asserts that the European Union is the matrix of future wars of independence as the foolish nations of Europe struggle to throw off the boa constrictor that they themselves have wrapped around their necks. Continentals are afraid of freedom: they still yearn for Caesar.

Anglecynne will end tourism. Tourism has made a whore of the whole world. Anglecynne will institute out-visas, which will not require a bureaucracy since Anglecynne will issue none.

Anglecynne will close down internal tourism. When you are bored, don't rush off; instead twiddle your thumbs. Anglecynne intends that the closure of internal tourism is integrated with the cautious withdrawal from the tottering tower of Economy. If the restless must rush off, rush off to Blackpool.

ONE EARTH: ONE SURVIVAL

England's survival does not end with England. One Earth: One Survival.

Anglecynne recognises that the Whiteman has too much of the World. Anglecynne intends that the destroyer of nations shall become the restorer of nations.

Anglecynne insists that the first duty that the English owe to the rest of Humanity is to keep healthy. Healthy English is healthy earth, race and way. You cannot be a good neighbour if your house is disorder.

FOUR ECONOMIC RULES

Anglecynne's escape from the tottering tower of economy continues with Anglecynne's Four Economic Rules:-

1. LIMITED OWNERSHIP.

For example you can own one shop, you cannot own two. Anglecynne intends to break up the multiplicities, will hand out each branch to – say – the present manager.

2. OWNERSHIP IS NOT INCOME.

If you want income, you'll have to work for it.

3. THE WORKER OWNS HIS OWN WORK.

Responsibility: the average man does not want it. In fact he wills not to take responsibility; he wills to leave all that to someone else. This must stop or Humanity is done for. The worker is his own boss. When he sells his labour, he does not sell his responsibility. Labour responsibility means that he has no one to blame but himself. Anglecynne knows that the concept 'self-employment' is perversion. The true concept is 'independent labour' or 'labour not for hire'.

4. USURY IS TREASON.

This follows from Rule Two. Money is shortly to vanish from the Earth. Money is not a thing. Its existence is faith. For money to exist this faith is in three persons. For example, I go into a shop and want a loaf of bread. The shop keeper gives me the loaf of bread in exchange for a bit of plastic because he has faith that when tomorrow he goes into a shop for an apple the shop keeper will accept the bit of plastic from him. If he doesn't have faith, he won't part with his bread. Money is faith. No faith, no money. If you were doubtful of tomorrow, would you part with your bread for a bit of plastic today?

Money will vanish shortly. Money will vanish when people realise that there are billions too much of it: infinite inflation in fact. There are billions too much of it because of usury. Infinite inflation is kept out of mind by work. Every single penny must continuously be at work. When the work stops, the money vanishes. The work is Earth-Killing. Tomorrow is the Crash of Man.

Wise nations will quietly set up an internal money. Internal money will be regulated by a single manager of national money, managing tax, borrowing, lending and inflation. Internal money will be the articulator of exchange only. It will be so because it will pay no interest. Who lends without interest? A national bank does.

Wise nations will begin a selective defaulting. Selective defaulting deliberately shrinks the quantity of global money. Money partakes of Global Causality. Global Causality is a change here is a change everywhere. Consider a chess game. If you move even a lowly pawn, that movement changes the value of every other piece on the board. So be careful, the tower is tottering. Its fall won't crush you: you will be left naked and starving. And in reality at last. Hell comes before death.

Anglecynne intends that England shall be the first wise nation. And only right and proper: England farrowed the Economy monster.

Meanwhile hole-digging companies will become hole-filling companies. Building companies will become unbuilding companies. Earth-poisoning companies will become earth-healing companies. Don't worry, Mammon, there's money in the struggle to survive.

THE MONSTROUS BRITISH STATE

Meanwhile survival demands cost-cutting. The monstrous British state will be euthanized. Who needs social workers? Anglecynne will give serious consideration to the first defaulting: the cancellation of the pension the state pays itself. This includes politicians, bureaucrats local and central, police, judges, social workers, teachers, librarians, BBC etc. Remember the state is police-state, is Bent-Nazi state. Do you pay the nurse a pension for poisoning you?

All benefits including health care to be means-tested. The jobless put to jobs – or would they rather starve? Full factories: empty streets. Since causality is global, the mind must be global: an end to one-track minds. As far as Liberalism and Economism are concerned, if you don't see two evils, you're one of them.

CREEPING COUP

Anglecynne intends an end to the stupor of the English. Wake up: THERE HAS BEEN A COUP D'ETAT IN BRITAIN. Not a sudden explosive bloody coup as in Russia in 1917, but over decades a slow insidious Creeping Coup. We have been taken over and we've let it happen. The Creeping Coup is like that science fiction film, the Invasion of the Body Snatchers in which an ordinary chap is invaded and possessed by an alien. He looks the same but he isn't. Now in England a chap looks like a regular English policeman. But he isn't, he's been taken over, now he is a Bent-Nazi policeman.

Liberalism (Bent-Nazism) has taken over every single department of the state. They aren't English anymore. They may look English outside, but they aren't inside. Listen in that classroom. That teacher may look English, but he isn't, he's an alien (Bent-Nazi). Why else is he teaching our children that they must hate themselves for being English?

The Home Office is completely alien even to the cleaning ladies. The 'Home Office' is the office that encourages Illegals to make a home in England.

History teaches us that soldiers shoot whom they are told to shoot. The aliens are preparing English soldiers to shoot the English.

The Anglican Church is completely alien in so far as a corpse can be alien.

The BBC of course has sniffers to detect us: fee-fi-fo-fum, I smell the blood of an Englishman.

The judges still wear their Father Christmas garbs, but it is aliens who wear them; no longer judges of justice, now judges of political correctness: are you now or have you ever been a Racist?

The National Health Service is staffed by aliens, who know that Racists aren't happy and will help them out of their unhappiness with a mere prick of a needle.

THE ALIENS HAVE TAKEN OVER THE POLITICAL PARTIES

The Liberalists control the British State. But not the government. The government is the party that has the most MPs. The Liberalists know that the Liberal Party is unelectable. SO THEY MUST INFILTRATE ONE OF THE TWO ELECTABLE PARTIES. In the lunatic election metronome Tory/Labour/Tory/Labour, for an alien to become prime minister, HE MUST BE IN ONE OF THE TWO. In spy movies, he is called a 'sleeper'. He pretends to be a loyal party member and works his way up until his moment comes. His moment comes when the government party is not re-electable and therefore at the next election by default the other party is elected.

So he becomes prime minister. He finds the nearest waste paper basket, throws his Labour or Tory election manifesto into it, takes out his ALIEN AGENDA, and implements it. He's got five years. His MPs won't risk an election sooner because they know they'll never get back in, so they vote his alien agenda into law. He thinks five years is enough to complete the alien take over SO THE ENGLISH WILL NEVER GET THEIR ENGLAND BACK.

CONTROLLISM

THE UBIQUITOUS SYMPTOM OF AN EVIL REGIME IS THAT IT HAS NO ANSWER TO CRITICISM BUT VIOLENCE.

The state is not a thing. The state is persons. The state is persons who select their successors behind closed doors. THE STATE IS CONTROL. Control is why the state was brought into existence: to be a despot's human machine of control. After-all he can't be doing it all himself; he can't be signing death warrants upstairs while torturing enemies downstairs. Whom does he recruit? He recruits CONTROLLISTS. Controllists used to be called control-freaks. Controllists suffer from Controllism.

Controllism is a personality condition caused by defective parenting. The sufferer doesn't believe in himself: he seeks someone to believe in. The sufferer is frightened of self-command: he seeks someone to command him. Frightened of his own free will, the sufferer has a horror of free will in his fellow Humans. Chaos is how he sees free will. Chaos must be brought to order; free-will must be controlled. But the sufferer from Controllism cannot do it. He is inexorably drawn to the one who can. The one who can is the one who also has a horror of free will. He has a horror of all free will except his own. That one is the despot. Stalin is a recent one. But he can't do his despotism all on his own, he needs helpers, Dirty-Workers. And there they are, the Controllists, waiting for him as for a Messiah. What a symbiotic relationship. And that is the state.

If there is no Stalin handy, the Controllist will seek desperately for a substitute obedience. Religion is a substitute obedience. When Controllists get into a religion, they bring the Devil with them. Revolutionary ideology is another substitute. And a delicious one because revolutionary ideologies preach righteous hatred. What an opportunity for dirty work.

THE HUMAN PERSONALITY IS THE CAUSE OF HISTORY

Stalin does not make sadists; religion does not make religious killers; revolutionary ideology does not make Dirty-Workers. It is Humanity that makes them as it makes Buddhas and Christs. The behaviour of Man springs out of his personality. The evil regime, therefore, does not create the evil policeman, he already exists. He is dormant until the evil regime activates him. The evil policeman is the evil of the evil regime.

THE HAPPY FAMILY IS THE PREVENTION OF HISTORY

Since the behaviour, and history and politics, of Man spring out of his personality, and his personality springs out of his nurturing, be careful of his nurturing. The happy family is the careful nurturing. The happy family is the biological family. Anglecynne views the decades of Liberalism as a negative experiment, proving by the Wrong Way what is the Right Way. The right way is the child growing up at Home.

THE PREVENTION OF THE STATE

Of the state, prevention is better than cure. Prevention is the man who has inherited the virtue of the King without his vice. The vice of the King is his hunger for the free will of other men. His virtue is his responsibility for the good of his kingdom. The virtue of the father is responsibility for the good of his family. The virtue of the voter is responsibility for the good of his nation. The virtue of the voter is when the voter takes the blame for the effect of his vote.

THE TRANSCENDENT NATION

Anglecynne intends two-in-one: the restoration and transcendence of personal responsibility is the unbuilding and redundancy of the state. THE TRANSCENDENT NATION IS THE CONDOMINIUM OF KING EVERY MAN.

ACCOUNTABILITY

The return of personal responsibility starts with THE RETURN OF ACCOUNTABILITY. Anglecynne will ask those persons to justify themselves who, by their Creeping Coup, have seized the British State and perverted it into a thing alien, totalitarian, demented and enemy of the English. The meaning of king is the Guardian of the Kin. HOW HAVE THEY, who have seized this guardianship, EXERCISED IT?

And don't use the voter as an excuse.

THE PROBLEM OF LAW

The Problem of Law is that because it is the law, it doesn't mean it is good. Most of the great evils of history have been legal. This realisation comes as a great shock to most people.

How do we decide if a law is good? Most English people will say, 'our laws are good because they have been passed by Parliament'. Most Americans will say, 'our laws are good because they are in accordance with the Constitution'. This is THE FALLACY OF LEGALISM. It tells us it has been correctly passed: it doesn't tell us if what has been passed is good. Foul water can pass down a pipe as easily as clean.

This fallacy is related to another fallacy. This is THE FALLACY OF ORTHODOXY. Orthodox means politically or religiously or ideologically correct. Bigots believe that if something is orthodox, it must be good; if it is orthodox, it must be true; if it is orthodox, it must be just. No, it's just orthodox. A chef has the correct recipe. If he cooks the pudding according to the correct recipe, then the pudding must be delicious. If the customers are vomiting in the restaurant, then the diners are terrorists.

Both these fallacies derive from the proto-fallacy of absolute truth. THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS ABSOLUTE TRUTH. The best evidence that there is no such thing as absolute truth is the violence inflicted on those who dare to question. Contemporary practitioners of PROOF BY MURDER are Muslims and Bent-Nazis.

The best antidote to the fallacy of absolute truth is English Pragmatism. English Pragmatism says that the proof of the pudding is in the eating, not in its fidelity to a recipe.

BLIND BIGOTS

Liberalists are trapped inside their absolute truth. They state that if a law is Anti-Racist law, it must be good law and those who point out the bad effects of the law are terrorists. Pragmatism states that an undoubted truth is an undoubted lie if the undoubted truth in practice produces harm. If the effect is bad, the cause is bad. If the cause of the bad effect is a law, then the law is bad. But Liberalists can only test a law by Liberalism. If it is a Liberalist law, it cannot have any bad effects. Punishment is meted out to those who point out the disastrous effects. Punishment is meted out to those who suffer the disastrous effects, and dare to complain. Liberalists are blind bigots. A blind bigot is blind to the actual effects of his decisions. Thus Liberalists can walk through this country crowded with crime and see no crime. Thus Liberalists can walk through classrooms crowded with illiteracy and see no illiteracy. Thus Liberalists can walk through hospital wards crowded with the victims of permissiveness and see no victims of permissiveness. Thus Liberalists can imprison Lucy Connolly and believe in freedom of speech.

Bigot-Blindness extends to the fallacy of the End Justifies the Means. This allows the Anti-Racists to do any bad to achieve Anti-Racism because Anti-Racism is good. So the Anti-Racists can do Racism to the English to uphold Anti-Racism. Remember you cannot talk to the Mad: they cannot hear you. This dementia is Bigot-Blindness.

REVOLUTIONARY IDEOLOGY IS HARM

The question is what is harm? Anglecynne says that revolutionary ideology is harm since without exception its implementation has been like earthquake. Anglecynne says that since the governance of Humanity by idea has been earthquake, Humanity had better return to biology. The Human society of LEAST HARM is the Human society that is founded on WHAT HUMANS NEED AND NOT ON WHAT THEY WANT.

SINCE NUREMBERG

This brings us back to law. Laws are demands for obedience under penalty of punishment. But at Nuremberg the plea that I was obeying orders was rejected with the inference that you must only obey good orders: YOU MUST DISOBEY EVIL ORDERS. And it has happened that after the fall of evil regimes, people have been punished for obeying the laws of those evil regimes, which if they didn't obey during the regime brought them punishment. So now we have the delicious irony that you will be punished if you don't obey the law, and later you will be punished if you do. Everybody needs to be aware of this, most especially law-makers, and policemen, and prosecutors, and judges, and juries, and jailors. There is no plea that 'Lucy Connolly pleaded guilty.' Sorry, that won't help you, Law-Maker, Policeman, Prosecutor, Judge, Juryman, Jailer. When you are brought to trial, your only plea will be, not that it was the law that sent Lucy Connolly to prison, not that it was Anti-Racist law, but that it was GOOD law.

Remember that GOOD DOES NOT MEAN POLITICALLY OR RELIGIOUSLY OR IDEOLOGICALLY CORRECT.

TAKE THE BLAME

This intent to hold the Liberalist regime to account is the Return of Responsibility. Modern democracy is phoney democracy. Phoney democracy is WHERE NOBODY TAKES THE BLAME.

The child plays the game: the parent takes the blame. Anglecynne intends to bring back the blame.

LAW OR JUSTICE

What is a good law, a lawful law, as opposed to a legal law? In other words, we must distinguish between law and justice. LAW MUST BE REASONABLE. A law is not just if it is not reasonable. The effect must be NICELY calculated. The Law of the Lifeboat comes to mind. Taxation that is not related to ability to pay is legal but not lawful. A law that deprives the elderly of their driving licence, and fails to provide alternative transport is in fact a law legalising starvation. All the laws reactive to Nazism turn out to be simply Bent-Nazism. Anti-Semitism is simply flipped into Pro-Semitism: the Jew can do no right is flipped into the Jew can do no wrong. Still no justice for Jews.

THE RETURN OF EQUITY

Anglecynne intends the return of Equity, intends that by the writ of certiorari Equity shall be the Guardian of the Fundamental Constitution of Mankind, which are the Laws of Natural Selection. A law that offends the laws of Natural Selection is A CRIME AGAINST SURVIVAL. Equity rules that SURVIVAL IS THE JUDGE OF LAW. Treason is defined as the attack on survival. The writ allows an Equity judge to demand of a new law even before it is law that it demonstrates its wholesomeness. Equity is Conservation against Innovation. Equity is a stop on the flood of untested legislation. Equity rules that like/dislike is no business of law. Equity is the enemy of enthusiasm. Equity is the enemy of fashion. Equity is the spinster school teacher who just wants to spoil your fun; the writ of certiorari is the ruler with which she raps the knuckles of political boys. Equity does not trust science, refuses the notion that scientific truth is truth. Equity can overturn legislation, administrative acts, verdicts. By the writ of certiorari Equity is defender of tradition. The writ of certiorari should have been used in the 1960s/1970s to demand of government that it demonstrates the national good of radical change, for example the destruction of railways and the construction of motorways. Equity would have prevented the plague of Salem witch trials of so-called paedophiles by extending the statute of limitations; it would have refused to recognise the amendment to that statute to allow geriatric trials of alleged Nazis. In Scotland some years ago, a father was sent to prison because on a bus he had lost his temper with his naughty child and hit the child. Equity rules his imprisonment a wickedness twice. Firstly: they used violence to change the behaviour of a father who used violence to change the behaviour of a child. Secondly because Equity will not allow outside interference in the family. Divorce: unlawful. Social workers: unlawful. Equity defends Home. Home is the social biology of Man. THE ATTACK ON HOME IS A CRIME AGAINST SURVIVAL is treason. Anti-Racism: unlawful. European Convention on Human Rights: unlawful. Immigration: unlawful. Refugees: unlawful. Emigration: unlawful. Equity rules that by Natural Selection Mankind is a patriarchal patrilineal species. Equity rules that like it or not, you're stuck with it. Equity defends the Human Life Support System, which is the planetary status quo before the Industrial Revolution. From 1981 Equity would have demanded by writ of certiorari that government proves that its legislation is not poisoning the planet. Due to the inconvenient fact of exhaust gases raising the mean global temperature, Equity rules that car driving is Treason-Against-Survival.

ANIMAL AND EGO

Man is animal and ego. He needs and he wants. The alcoholic needs water: he wants alcohol. Equity does not allow the ego's alcohol to poison the animal's water. Equity defines reasonability: what do you think is reasonable behaviour in a house that you did not build and cannot rebuild? What do you think is reasonable behaviour on a ship on a shoreless sea and you cannot swim?

Equity, determined on the return of responsibility, revives the ancient tradition that guilt is in the effect, not in the intent. The ancients refused to recognise the difference between unintentional and intentional act: he's still dead, isn't he? Equity rules that YOUR RIGHT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY.

Equity is not tried to a formula of words: Equity is THE ROLLING CONSTITUTION.

DUE PROCESS

Through the writ of certiorari Equity would not have allowed the Liberalist attack on Due Process. Due process is THE PREVENTION OF SHOW TRIALS. Righteousness holds show trials, where the guilt and the punishment are already decided, and the trial is a public performance of the ritual of righteous rage. Righteousness rage is the preamble to a killing. Righteousness cannot allow anything to impede it, which impediment must be unrighteousness. Justice is the impediment to the triumph of Righteousness. How frail this impediment is against the sea-rage of Righteousness.

PRAGMATIC DON'TS

Due process is the accumulation of Pragmatic Don'ts.

Don't do inquisition. Righteousness does inquisition; it can find the truth just by putting the accused to the question. The English way is more modest: trial by jury. Trial by jury is the Tao in practice. Anglecynne intends the return of the Racist jury. The jury is the achievement of English genius. It begins at the beginning of Englishness when fraternal witness (we swear our brother didn't do it) shifts to neighbourhood witness (we swear next door didn't do it). And so it has been in all its subsequent evolutions: the jury is witness. At the trial, the judge witnesses the lawfulness: the jury witnesses the proof beyond reasonable doubt. The genius of the jury evolved through many English centuries. And evolved nowhere else. The genius of the jury is this: my loyalty is to justice; I have no brother but justice. It doesn't work otherwise: it no longer works. Anti-Racism has killed the jury. Jurors are very exposed: they must feel at Home. Anti-Racism has destroyed Home. The Liberalist-permissiveness-made explosion of criminality attacks the jury: if the streets are no longer safe, the jury box is no longer safe. Anti-Racism is political interference in jury selection; the jury is packed to make sure it conforms to Political Correctness: righteousness before justice.

JUSTICE DOES NOT CRIMINALISE MOTIVE.

Crime is in the act, not in the mind. Liberalists like all evil regimes criminalise motive. Evil regimes criminalise the motive, SO THE MOTIVE CAN BE CRIMINALISED WITHOUT THE ACT. The motive without the act is WORDS. THUS EVIL REGIMES CRIMINALISE WORDS. Remember: the ubiquitous test of an evil regime is ITS ONLY ARGUMENT IS VIOLENCE.

HATRED IS NOT A CRIME

Hatred is not a crime because it is NOT AN ACT. Terrorism is not a crime because it is a motive: THE CRIME IS CONFINED TO THE ACT. 'Terrorist-related' is the Bent-Nazis' favourite slap-mouth-shut. Evil regimes like the label. The label is added value: crime plus terror; crime plus hate; crime plus Racism. For example, when he hit her, he shouted 'I hate you'. In just regimes, this is one crime, he hit her. In evil regimes this is two crimes, he hit her and 'I hate you'. So now the evil regime can put in prison anybody merely shouting 'I hate you'. Equity's rule is Let the mouth answer the mouth: let the hand answer the hand because sticks and stones may break my bones but words will never harm me.

'WIND IN THE WILLOWS': TERRORIST-RELATED

Evil regimes indoctrinate the gullible in the manner of Pavlov with his dogs. The result of the repeated association of 'hate' and 'crime' is that hate is crime when there is no act. For example, a crime is labelled 'terrorist'. In the convicted terrorist's room is a copy of 'Wind in the Willows'. This is now a terrorist-related book. In another person's room is the same book. This person is now terrorist-related.

PARANOIA

Soon 'Wind in the Willows' will be banned. It is deeply seditious. It promotes defiance of the state because it treats Toad's escapes from prison as a good thing. It encourages vigilantism because Toad and his friends regain Toad Hall all by themselves. They should have called the police. It is horrifyingly racist. Toad and his friends violently expel the stoats. They should have made them welcome.

Paranoia is not conspiracy, it is a psychosis. To relieve their anxiety, insecure people seek two persons. They seek a leader and they seek a witch: to follow the leader and burn the witch. If the leader is also paranoid, the night is bright with burnings.

THERE ARE NO ‘CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY’

Equity does not bend with the wind. There are no ‘crimes against humanity’? An empty phrase, mere ‘sounding brass’. Aren’t all crimes against Humanity? If Nazi murders a million, it is not a Crime against Humanity, it is a million crimes against a million human beings, each of whom has had his life taken from him, and each of whom has a name. And that is how Auschwitz is remembered, not by Holocaust Day, which is the worship of the God of Hate, but by the Naming of the Names; ceaselessly by day and night, under the sun and the rain and the light of candles, the naming of each and every human name.

ANGER IS NOT A CRIME

Anger is not a crime except in a regime so evil that every emotion is a crime unless it has asked permission. Anger is a virtue. Anger is the prisoner throwing off at last his chains of fear.

INCITEMENT IS NOT A CRIME

Incitement is not a crime BECAUSE YOU DON’T HAVE TO OBEY IT. I am not responsible for what you do: YOU ARE. Giving offence is not a crime BECAUSE YOU DON’T HAVE TO TAKE OFFENCE. I am not responsible for what you feel: YOU ARE.

‘Abuse’ is another favourite ‘crime’ of the present evil regime. It is a ‘hold-all’ word because its meaning ranges from being rude all the way to murder. And the Human, being what he is, will always think the worst when he hears it. Very useful, therefore, to the mind-manipulators. ‘Racial’ abuse is not a crime BECAUSE IT DOESN’T BREAK RACIAL BONES.

THE REIGN OF TERROR

The reign of terror in schools and other institutions is the result of the criminalising of motive in order to control the Human Being down to the very roots of his mind. 'Check your thinking,' the policeman said who once was an English bobby. And is he not more deadly than the Iranian policeman who says, 'check your dress'? Equity knows that the road to the death camps starts with the criminalizing of the mouth, so Equity's stern principle is WORDS ARE NOT CRIMES.

THE RIGHT TO PRIVACY

The next DON'T follows from this. It is the Right to Privacy. In our kitchen we can slang our neighbours. If our neighbours overhear, too bad. Our slanging is privileged because it is IN PRIVATE. In a healthy culture (which is Home), Eavesdroppers, Denouncers and Gossips are punished most cruelly: THEY ARE IGNORED. Ignored, they are dormant. Their emergence is the warning of disease. DENOUNCERS ARE THE UBIQUITOUS SYMPTOM OF AN EVIL REGIME.

THE DUTY OF PRIVACY

The Right to Privacy is the Duty of Privacy. In private, private love. In public, public love. In your closet, you're yourself. Out of your closet, you're English. Your right is your responsibility. What alone comes into the public out of the private is the celebration of Life Continuous: marriage and the baby, the little Lord of Life, whose smile is sunlight, whose noise is music.

'Outing' is an offence against privacy.

PUBLIC DECENCY

What follows from this is Public Decency. One of the symptoms of the social sickness of Liberalism is the breakdown of public decency. People now behave in public as if they are in private. Listen to them talking to themselves on their mobile phones. They are never here: they are always somewhere else. Public decency was the enforcement of public behaviour in public. Public decency is RECOGNITION. Recognition is crucial to the Keeping of the Peace. Recognition used to be called good manners or courtesy. Recognition recognises a fellow human even if you have no interest in him. Now people walk past you as if you are not there. Now the young are so busy gossiping in gangs that they push you off the pavement because you are not there. Liberalism is social disintegration, is every man for himself. Courtesy is cohesion: is a survival necessity.

EQUITY REJECTS ‘EQUALITY’

‘Equality’ is inequality, is unashamed, is ‘positive discrimination’. Any inequality is acceptable in the virtuous path to ‘equality’. Equality is Liberalism’s Procrustean bed. The cult of ‘Equality’ is hatred in righteous dis guise. The cult of ‘equality’ is superiority patronising the inferior: ‘you can’t win the race on your own; I’ll handicap the other runners.’ The demand for equality is the confession of inferiority. Equality is social engineering. Equality is biological perversion. SURVIVAL ALONE REVEALS THE RIGHT RELATIONSHIP.

THE GRAND JURY

In the long-since failure of Parliament to defend the right, certiorari is necessary. And so is the Grand Jury. The grand jury was not concerned with guilt or innocence, but with sufficient evidence. And now with this question: is the law under which this charge is brought good law? Prove it. Let the legislature beware.

Why did due process forbid to try an accused twice for the same offence? So that the Righteous learn to take no for an answer.

Why were previous convictions of the accused not told in court? Previous convictions are not evidence. Because he did it then doesn’t mean he’s done it now.

Why are trials in open court? Because murder is done in secret.

Why is the accused innocent until proven guilty? Because if you have given a dog a bad name, he must have done the crime. And every other crime. A man’s good name is an essential part of his safety. It is an essential part of Keeping the Peace.

IN A POLICE STATE

Why is the accused given the benefit of the doubt? Not proven is innocent. The accused need say nothing. Is silence a crime? IN PARANOIA SILENCE IS A CRIME: in a police state, silence is a crime. In a police state, you must prove you are not a criminal. In a police state, silence is the refusal to prove you are not a criminal. In a police state, silence is confession. In a police state, citizen means criminal. In a police state, no citizen is allowed on the street except he wears hand-cuffs so he can't commit crime. This is called Crime Prevention. In the mind of the mad, Auschwitz was Crime Prevention. The English Auschwitz will be Crime Prevention.

Why 'Habeas Corpus'? Confinement in a police cell is a form of torture to break the will of the arrested.

Why was the arrested told 'Anything you say will be taken down and may be used in evidence?' To encourage the arrested not to gabble.

SELF-HELP

Is Self-Help lawful? Self-help is self-defence. Self-defence is inalienable. It needs no more permission than being alive. Self-defence is invested in the collective but reverts to the individual upon the failure of the collective to do its duty of defence. Self-defence becomes self-help when a state, instead of defending the citizen, attacks him. The state's attack upon the individual is murder or seizure of his person contrary to 'Habeas Corpus' or an attack upon his life support system or FAILURE TO SUSTAIN HIS LIFE SUPPORT SYSTEM. Down in a hole is a hungry lion. A boy is half in the hole. His father is very busy preventing his son from getting out of the hole. If the boy attacks his father so that he can escape the hungry lion, the boy is exercising his INALIENABLE DUTY OF SELF-DEFENCE. The same boy, same hole, same lion. This time the father is too busy talking to his girlfriend on his mobile phone to notice his son's danger, and moreover has not noticed that his foot is on his son's hand. If the boy attacks his father so that he can escape the hungry lion, the boy is exercising his inalienable duty of self-defence.

LIBERALISM'S UNIQUE ATTACK

The Liberalist State's attacks upon the individual's safety are unique.

1. ECONOMY is a deadly attack upon the individual by its incremental destruction of his life support system.

2. ANTI-RACISM is a deadly attack upon the individual by its external attack on his biological collective (his Home) like the captain of a ship who invites pirates on board.
3. PERMISSIVENESS is a deadly attack on the individual by its internal attack on his moral health and so indirectly on the biological collective like the captain of a ship who encourages drunkenness in the crew.
4. THE LIBERALIST POLICE STATE is a deadly attack upon the individual as for example Lucy Connolly.

Self-help, then, starts with THE INDIVIDUAL'S REFORM OF HIMSELF: moral regeneration and the eschewment of Permissiveness/Consumerism.

Then he is ready to turn his attention upon the state.

1. The self-helper DOES NOT RIOT. The police state loves rioters. The self-helper saves his energy.
2. The self-helper REFUSES TERRORISM. Terrorism is motivated by hatred; no soldier is a terrorist; it is indiscriminate; it poisons the personality.
3. The self-helper LEAVES THE HIGH COMMAND WELL ALONE. The High Command, the politburo, is too well defended.
4. The police state IS NOT WELL-DEFENDED. The police state consists of the High Command and millions of state employees. The High Command commands, the state employees carry out the commands. Without them, the High Command is just hot air. And as such THE STATE EMPLOYEES ARE THE POLICE STATE. But they are only obeying orders. That's no plea. At Nuremberg that plea was rejected. They are responsible for what they do. Such persons have no right of 'innocence until proven guilty' because they are supposedly carrying out delegated responsibilities on the citizen's behalf and so they must render an account of how they have performed their duty.

They are the vulnerability of evil regimes: THEY CANNOT BE PROTECTED BECAUSE THEY ARE TOO MANY.

Who are they? The answer to that depends on the type of police state. If it is merely despotic, they are the police, street and secret, and THE RUBBER-

STAMPERS. The rubber-stampers are the judiciary, magistracy, prosecutors, special juries etc., whose job is to be the conduit down which the victims of the police state pass from arrest to prison.

And of course the bureaucrats. See them going their separate ways of an evening. There one goes, on his bicycle to his semi in the gathering gloom. What target could be easier? Remember he has spent his days in the execution of wickedness. He may not have brought the baton down on the head of a terrified protestor but he has made sure that there is a baton.

Citizen-surveillance has a double meaning. It means the surveillance of the citizen by the police state. It ALSO means the surveillance of the police state by the citizen: THE HUNTER'S ART. Remember that the bureaucrat is not elected. He cannot be got at that way. The hunting citizen is an amateur sleuth, and he employs accountants, private investigators. The British State is not only totalitarian, it is also ethically corruption. By Permissiveness and the inevitable carelessness, indeed slobbishness, of those who are never called to account, the personnel of the Police State are state thieves. And what do they get up to in their houses? If they spy on your privacy, you spy on theirs.

And of course the ordinary MPs.

And of course the party membership.

And the denouncers.

If the police state is also a religious or ideological state like Iran or Marxist Russia or Liberalist England, then the targets include the media and teachers, who by fear or conviction are the indoctrinators of fear and loathing, who are the preachers who arouse the congregation to a witch-hunt.

WHEN ALL ELSE HAS FAILED

The self-helper's intent is to throw a spanner into the works of an infernal machine when all else has failed. What that means in practice depends upon the particular situation. Take the civil servant returning to his semi after a day's oiling of the infernal machine. Perhaps self-help is no more than a long hard look: 'I know what you do'.

IN A POLICE STATE THE CITIZEN IS ALREADY CRIMINAL, so a long hard look is already innumerable crimes. THE LIBERALIST STATE HAS BEEN ARMING ITSELF AND EMPOWERING ITSELF FOR DECADES IN PREPARATION FOR THE COMING OF SELF-HELP. They call it 'vigilantism'. But they prefer to call it 'terrorism'. THE MAD CANNOT BE TALKED TO, THEY CAN ONLY BE CONFRONTED. Like addiction, MADNESS IS INCREMENTAL. You know the progress of Nazism: how can you doubt that Bent-Nazism is following the same path; HOW CAN YOU BELIEVE THAT IT WILL STOP ITSELF?

THE MADNESS OF ECONOMISM

The madness of Economism is incremental.

THE FIRST WARNING was the Auschwitz of Animals in the 1960s, which was the achievement of DDT. They got rid of DDT but refused to learn any lesson.

THE SECOND WARNING was the announcement in 1981 that the Planet was heating up due to the unfortunate characteristic of carbon gas. The response of Economism was Margaret Thatcher and Global Capitalism.

THE THIRD WARNING is the visible evidence of catastrophic planetary change such as Tuvalu and the Polar Bears starving in the Artic. The response: refusal, which is the psychosis of Denial.

THE FOURTH WARNING is the Mass Extinction Event. The response: do we need so many species? which is the Life-Hater's response.

The Mad are not conspirators, the Mad are trapped in their madness. BUT WE ARE THEIR VICTIMS. HELL IS COMING. GET BUSY.

GOOD WILL

Lawful Law stands like St Michael, cold implacable angel, against the fury of the Beast. UNLAWFUL LAW LEGALISES THE FURY OF THE BEAST.

But in the end there is only GOOD WILL. No law however lawful can replace Good Will. Natural good will is family love. That is the meaning of the word kind. Survival of a social species requires cohesion, a biological sense of belonging together: kindred. In an emergency, it is easier to keep individuals alive who are in kindred: one package of survival rations sustains a whole family.

LAW MUST BE REASONABLE

What used to be a nation is now 'every man for himself'. Law must be reasonable. BY WHAT REASON has government after government destroyed the survivability of this nation? Not long ago every town in this England was A SURVIVAL STRONGHOLD. Each was a BOROUGH. Boroughs were more than just towns.

A borough enjoyed intense loyalty, togetherness, family-continuity and independence.

A borough contained its own authority, its own law-making authority, its accountable police.

A borough was a hub of communication: post office, telephone exchange, railway station, buses.

A borough contained its own emergency response: doctors, hospital, matron, nurses, Red Cross, ambulance, fire brigade.

A borough maintained and repaired itself with its skilled craftsmen.

A borough supplied you with your shopping-needs.

A borough allowed you to pay your bills locally.

A borough educated you and kept you informed. A borough taught you skills life-long.

A borough was all you needed. If you were lonely indoors, out you went. A seat in the green-grocers and a chat; it could take you all day to get from the top of the High Street to the bottom on your shopping-chat-journey.

A borough had its feast days, and sport. National celebrations were borough-celebrated. It brewed its beer and sang its songs.

A borough was intensely proud: it didn't drop litter, it didn't neglect its monuments, its gravestones, its traditions.

A borough like a village was community in its real, its biological sense.

STATE JEALOUSY abolished the borough.

STATE JEALOUSY IS TRYING TO DESTROY THE SHIRES. The State allows loyalty only to itself: shire and borough are potentially subversive. Shire and borough (and hundred) were the most enduring administrative system in history, another work of English genius.

A FATAL ECONOMY destroyed the borough. Economism has no time for boroughs. It only tolerates consumers. The more solitary the consumer is, the more he consumes.

To the 'liberated' i.e. the selfish individual, the borough was a drag, a real drag.

WHY HAS HATRED TAKEN OVER HUMANITY?

Liberalism and Economism together form a single hatred of Life. It is by hatred that this species hangs on to life. Hatred is all that's left. Anglecynne has said that hatred is the last clinging to hope. Such hopes we had. We put almost all our intelligence into the pursuit of our hopes from tools via agriculture and God and immortality to science and technology. Now all these are no more than dust through our fingers. So we stand in the desert of our hopes and punish Life for the cruel trick Life has played on us. And on us alone. All other animals abide in the bliss of unknowing. What they don't know and we do is death. The discovery of death is the discovery of the dirty trick that Life has played on us. The first reaction to the Discovery is Dread. The second reaction is to run away from Dread. Our history is the running away from dread. Running away from dread is running to Safety. Safety is where we can hide from dread. Diamonds are bright against the darkness of dread. Now all our hopes of safety have failed. And hatred is all that's left, something, someone, to blame. Rage is the last defence against despair. Our hatred is rage concentrated over the millennia since our First Father found what he was not seeking for. (Of course, he also found himself. The discovery of death does tend to make you aware of your vulnerability, which is your body.)

Let us be clear, it is not death that has so destabilised this species, it is the discovery of death. The shock of the discovery runs through our history like an endless earthquake.

And take no pride in Human Intelligence. Human Intelligence is put to Denial not Survival.

Only courage can ACCEPT THE FACT of the discovery.

And Love. Who stands up first after the shock has thrown us all flat on our faces? Mother does. Whatever the catastrophe, the children must be fed.

Which is why Feminism is such rage, such betrayal, such despair.

What next?

FORGIVENESS OF LIFE.

Forgiveness is next. FORGIVENESS IS THE REGENERATION OF MAN. Anglecynne is the Regeneration of Man. The Regeneration of Man starts with personal moral regeneration. Personal moral regeneration brings with it Personal Responsibility. Personal Responsibility within Forgiveness is at once the return of the life-faithful animal and at last THE COMING OF THE TRANSCENDENT ADULT HUMAN.

The Transcendent Adult knows that he is an animal of a social species: he continues his Personal Responsibility with his CITIZEN'S RESPONSIBILITY which instantly recognises THE MENACE OF THE BENT-NAZIS, which requires A COLLECTIVE RESPONSE, which is Anglecynne, which brings with it THE RETURN OF ACCOUNTABILITY. The Return of Accountability is the return of Political Accountability. Parliament has become a playground; statute has become a toy to be snatched by the biggest boy. Politicians are sick children: little Jack Horners with their thumbs in the pie or children in a rage with Daddy.

NATIONAL HOLDING TO ACCOUNT

The Return of Accountability starts with a National Holding to Account. You cannot forgive those who refuse to repent. England has a Head of State. He is called a king. King means Defender of the Kindred. This king has a title the original and most honourable of all that he has: this king is REX ANGLORUM. How has this King of the English defended the English?

LET THE PLAYERS OF POLITICAL GAMES BEWARE.

In the National Holding to Account, Anglecynne looks seriously towards Treason Trials. Heseltine is the last survivor and a senior member of the Thatcher Gang. He imposed on this nation untested economic NERDISM. He sold our money independence to nameless alien pimps. He sold our manufacturing independence to the wage-slave states of Asia; he sold our manufacturing know-how, furthering endangering our independence. He destroyed hundreds of thousands of jobs. He destroyed the safety and happiness of hundreds of thousands of families. He destroyed whole communities. Whole industrial cities became suddenly pointless. Heseltine is responsible for shattering the stability of a whole nation. Heseltine is responsible for making this once independent manufacturing nation dependent on aliens. Heseltine is responsible for the deadly idiocy of having to buy our old manufactures from China, thus funding China's purchase of weapons aimed at us. He shall not use the voter as an excuse: he is responsible for what he has done.

And Blair's treason: the importation of the largest number of aliens in the shortest time in the history of the World into one of the smallest and most overcrowded nations and one least capable of feeding itself.

Nobody can give you permission to do wrong.

TRANSCENDENT DEMOCRACY

Anglecynne points out that democracy requires voter responsibility and the eradication of the politician. Anglecynne suggests a DEMOCRACY WITHOUT THE PLAGUE OF POLITICIAN. Every adult has a livelihood. As such every adult is in a GUILD. The guild regulates the livelihood in all its doings. The members progress from apprentice to journeyman to master to grandmaster according to the acknowledged quality of their work.

WITANMEET

There is one special grandmaster. He is elected to the supreme honour and duty of membership of the institution to replace alien parliament. This is the Witanmeet. THE WITANMEET HOLDS THE FINAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE WELL-BEING OF THE NATION. Since the election to membership is for life, the guild will be careful whom it elects. The name is the modernisation of the old name Witangemot. The name means the meeting of the wise men of the nation. The Witangemot replaced the folkmoot of the nation when decision-making by the meeting of all the free folk became impractical. The Witangemot was for the well-being of Anglecynne, whereas Parliament was for baronial conflict with the Norman king. The Witangemot consisted of the elders or aldermen. So shall the Witanmeet. The naturally-selected order of the generations is the young work, the middle aged manage, the old rule.

Eldership is unique to this species. Since Natural Selection must continue to operate within the Human, Eldership or the grandparenthood is of course its achievement. Natural Selection must continue to operate characteristically. That is to say, characteristic to the species. Therefore it must continue to operate not only within the body but also within the Intelligence, Personality and Society of the Human.

You might suspect by now that Liberalists are not the way to be Human. To put in the language of Natural Selection, Liberalists are mutants not selected for survival. In the unique predicament of Humanity, we can only learn the right way by trying it the wrong way and surviving the experience. Education is the survival of experience. We know we've got it wrong because it is not the expected paradise we have arrived at. Evolution operates within Man as Courage to Change. But only after desperate clinging to the Wrong Way that seemed at first of such certain hope. Courage makes the Man and courage makes the Mother.

Evolution characteristic to Man is Dialectical Evolution or Evolution by Opposites to Transcendence. An example: alcohol is welcomed as a gift from a god (Dionysius). Then alcohol is cursed as a snare from the Devil. Then alcohol is forgiven as a socially useful poison which we call 'social drinking'. 'Social drinking' is Transcendence within which the god and the Devil are calmed to mere choice of a drink or not. Each shift from god to Devil creates a little more of the Transcendent. This is how the Tao is built. Another example: Deism shifts to Atheism shifts to Letting God Go. So where is Transcendence here? For a start Dialectical Evolution is a historical process. It does not take place in one mind. Languages change but Language transcends time. It is within Language then that Dialectical Evolution operates down the generations. So what is Dialectical Evolution building within Language? It is building the Transcendent Mind of Man. The Transcendent mind of Man is No man has more than half the truth. To live this in thought, word and deed is the Transcendent Mind of Man. Not highfalutin, either. Consider Football. Even utterly degenerate as it is now, nonetheless Football is two teams, each of which is Football and is willing to put it to the test. That's courage: the courage to lose. Cowardice dare not lose, comes on to the field armed with bombs. That's Liberalism; that's why the cowardly clinging to empire turned into Anti-Racism turned into Bent-Nazism turns towards Auschwitz.

Eldership is the age of the widest concern. The young haven't time to climb the Seeing Tower, they are too busy making their own way. The Witanmeet is profoundly CONSERVATIVE. It has as many grandmothers as grandfathers.

The Witanmeet appoints the ministers, if necessary. Since the guilds manage their own livelihoods, they can appoint their own ministers. Why should there be a difference between guild of teachers and ministry of education? The State, that's why. Control, that's why. The organic way is the teacher in the classroom is also hierarchically responsible for administration and policy of education. To express it Organically or Transcendentally the teacher is the Minister of Education in the classroom; the Minister is the teacher the Guild sends to Whitehall to oversee the whole. Very boring. The Guild will pay him.

The crucial guild is the Money Guild. The Money Guild manages national money. It is parsimonious and suspicious and ever conscious of inflation. Within these conservative limitations, it is willing to lend. It taxes. It borrows. To lend to the National Bank without usury is not pointless. It keeps your savings safe and allows your savings to be useful in the maintenance of economic health and sanity. The National Bank is organised Organically: the Chancellor of the Exchequer in every village bank. In other words it manages national money within the concept of global causality: a pound lent in the village changes the value of the pound in the nation.

Thus it is possible to have democracy without parliament, politician or state.

LOCAL AUTHORITY

The return of responsibility is the return of local authority. The absence of local authority is the intent of the jealous state. The absence is a communal vacuum, is communal disintegration. Local authority is STREET AUTHORITY. Street authority is the elected Street Reeve. His job is good order and the keeping of the peace. His absence is the presence of crime: his presence is the absence of crime. His presence is the prevention of crime. His absence is internalised in the citizen as 'I can get away with it': his presence is internalised in the citizen as 'I can't get away with it', so I won't even think of doing it. The street reeve is also a judge. He is as wise as Athena's owl, is handy with his fists and has the key to the lock-up. He has a passionate loyalty to his street: the street will turn out day or night for his safety.

He is of course the continuation characteristically of the Alpha Male, thus conserving the Conservation of the Selected.

The street reeves elect the PORTREEVE whose business is the Borough. (The foreign name is 'mayor'.)

PERSONAL CHOICE IS ORGANICALLY DESTRUCTIVE.

The Borough will be as it was, nearer a tribe than a transit lounge. Not 'which school shall we choose?' Instead: OUR school. Not 'which hospital?' Instead: OUR hospital.

The portreeves elect the SHERIFF (the reeve of the shire).

In between the borough and the shire is the HUNDRED. The revival of the Hundred is an urgent necessity in rural areas as the English try to stitch England back together again.

Local loyalty is the foundation of national loyalty. Local loyalty is Home is as good as a feast. Local loyalty is wary of off-comers. Local loyalty is the child asking Daddy, 'do foreigners really have tails?' Local loyalty does it OUR WAY, the accumulation of which is MULTIPLICITY-IN-ONE, which is ORGANIC DIVERSITY.

LOCAL LOYALTY IS A SURVIVAL NECESSITY.

RE-INTEGRATION

Anglecynne intends the above to be the re-integration of the nation. Liberalism has been an acid that dissolves the body into blobs. Liberalism has been the saltwater that corrodes the ship until it sinks. Anglecynne remembers the coronation of 1953. For months the whole nation was caught up in the excitement and busy preparing. Every village and every street held feasts on Coronation Day. Anglecynne remembers the recent coronation, a few bits of bunting hanging limp and damp in the drizzle.

THE RESTORATION OF THE FAMILY

The Return of Responsibility continues in the Restoration of the Family by the removal of state interference.

INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY

The restoration can only start with the return of Individual Responsibility. Of course the restoration starts with the individual: 'when I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things'. Adulthood has but one definition: A SURVIVABLE PERSONALITY. And education has but one definition: the raising of a survivable personality – in a World that is no playroom. So it is achieved: where does it go when it is achieved? Does it shoot off like a rocket on Guy Fawkes Night? No, it takes up the burden of the family. Your right is your responsibility.

Individual Responsibility is the inheritance by Everyman of the Alpha-Maleship. (Let us note here that Anglecynne's language is masculine and not feminine. Why? Firstly English is missing the inclusive pronoun. Secondly because the act of Natural Selection that created the Human Primate occurred in the male not in the female. Thirdly Anglecynne's language is the Language of Liberation: letting the male prisoner out of the Feminist prison. Fourthly because Feminism is Feminist-Nazism. Fifthly because of fidelity to Natural Selection: Alpha Male not Alpha Female. Sixthly, coincidentally, because the years of female emancipation are the worst years of Human History. Seventhly because emancipation of woman has brought to the Woman, not exploration, not pioneership, not innovation, not leadership, not authority, not continence, not intelligence, not wisdom, not a passion for the well-being of Humanity, not Transcendence, not Faith-in-Life; instead it has brought Nazi-hatred of men, hatred of her womanhood, murder of her unborn children, and an epidemic of the nuisance little sister who demands that Daddy force her big brother to let her join his games. Woman has become Erinys. When a man is in a rage, it is a storm on Olympus. When a woman is in a rage, it is earthquake. She is older and deeper than the male. Her sanity is the sanity of the Earth. Let her come quickly to forgiveness.)

All benefits will be means-tested. Jobs will be taken. Your body is a body of work. The pleasure which our forebears took in their craftsmanship is directly descended from animals' joy in hunting. Rest after labour is biologically correct: leisure is biological perversion. Boredom is the devil who makes work for idle hands.

Your right is your responsibility is the only definition of democracy.

THE CORRECT WAY WITH THE TEENAGE YOUNG.

1. Keep them busy.
2. Keep them poor.
3. Keep them in family.
4. Keep off their backs.

FAMILIES ARE FOR BETTER OR WORSE

Families will be expected to care for their members. Families will be held responsible for the good behaviour of their members. Children will be raised in the safety of Adulthood Returned where pleasure is not personal but is the well-being of the children in their serene glide to adulthood. Not the state, the protection of the teenager is the responsibility of the family. To protect, you must control. Families will regain control over their children. Coming of age is 21. THE HEALTH OF THE BIOLOGICAL FAMILY IS THE HEALTH OF HUMANITY.

Your right is your responsibility.

'ROMANTIC LOVE'

Marriage vows will be honoured. Anglecynne warns that it will no longer allow 'romantic love' to explode family like a bomb. 'Romantic love' has hi-jacked marriage. It is no way to choose the other parent of your future children. If there is a single cause for the epidemic of childhood psychoses, it is 'romantic love' in which the children are merely incidental.

'Romantic love' has not been with us forever; it is a new phenomenon. Anglecynne calls it erosis (which is Eros plus osis [as in psychosis] minus os). It is the business of the prophet to point out that the cause of your vomiting is your favourite pudding. How you hate him for it. But until he does you are blind. That is to say, you are ego. The ego is a perverted animal (Man is the Mad Animal). The ego is the reaction to the Discovery of Death. The ego is animal consciousness mediated through the Discovery of Death. The ego is conscious, not self-conscious. Self-consciousness is Self-Discovery; it seeks to answer the question why do I do these things? It comes later. The ego is reaction: the reaction is flight. The flight is from dread. Dread is the first reaction. Dread is the driver. Dread is fear when no enemy is in sight. When an enemy is in sight, animals don't run from it, they run to safety. But if the enemy is between them and safety, they fight. So does the ego. But the ego does not run to a physical safety; the ego runs to a metaphorical safety from a metaphorical enemy. For sane animals, night is sleep: for Man, night is terror because night is metaphor for death. Light is Not-Night: light is metaphor for safety. The world of the ego is not the world of the animal. The world of the ego is the Not-World. Everything that seems positive is a Not-Death metaphor. Light is Not-Dark; sweet is Not-Sour; Victory is Not-Defeat; success is Not-Failure; plenty is Not-Dearth; food is Not-Starvation.

(And so we understand Economism: the rape of reality in the pursuit of metaphor. And we understand evil, that Auschwitz is not the deepest depth of evil: the very bowel of evil is to destroy a garden to build a carpark.)

(And we might begin to understand the failure of Science: Science is the Vindication of the Metaphor.)

The Discovery can never be undiscovered: the ego carries dread within it: the ego is dread, dreadfully busy. Dread is Perpetual Disappointment. Dread mocks victory today with the possibility of defeat tomorrow. Dread was before victory. Now dread is in victory: not enough victory, never enough victory: more, more, more. The more the victory, the more the dread. Unsurvivable. But we have survived, we, the Descendants of Cain. How?

Because Life is in us. Life in Man is Courage. Life is Evolution: Evolution must prevail. Dialectical Evolution must persist; it must persist within this new thing in the Universe, the ego: Egotistical Dialectical Evolution. Egotistical Dialectical Evolution is our way out of the ego and back to Life (but no guarantees). When we are sick of flight, flight is the enemy: we flee from flight. That is courage. When life is death, death is life.

Let us do an exercise in the theory of Egotistical Dialectical Evolution; our subject is 'romantic love'. 'Romantic love' is at present worshipped as a god, Eros. Then along comes Anglecynne, the sour-faced prophet, and announces that all the evidence is that Eros is not a god but a devil. His announcement is intolerable that Eros is not love: he usually gets done in for this insult to divinity. He defines love: love alone is love that does not demand to be loved. Murdered he may be, but the Word has been spoken; banned, burnt, but not unspoken. What he has done is reveal the phenomenon. And what he has done is reveal the worshipper to himself: self-discovery). Only your enemy can do this for you, give you eyes to see yourself, hold up the mirror to your vanity. Your enemy is your truth. It is darkness that reveals light. Before the prophet spoke, the Faithful worshipped but did not know that they worshipped. Now they will cling to the revealed and must loathe the Infidel. But the Word has been spoken and cannot be unspoken: the possibility exists that what is good might actually be bad. And even if all the Infidels are destroyed, still the Word is heard in the dark, in the nightmare, even in the morning, in the sunlight, even in the call of the Faithful to prayer: the curse of the possibility. If the possibility is the size of a mountain, and you crush it to a pebble, it is still the size of a mountain. The smaller you make it, the bigger it grows. It is the Future. At last you can deny the possibility no more. Where next? Life is in you, you must live on. Life in Man is Courage. Into the Dark you go, into the Abhorred, into the Possibility, into Dread, into the Discovery, into the face of Death. When life becomes death, death becomes life. All that's happened is that Saul has fallen off his horse, and last night's alcoholic is this morning's passionate drinker of water. And yet the Future has arrived in a new day, a day as fresh as the day Adam woke up. And of course there was no choice; there was courage but no choice: the time was ripe – if Life goes on. But all this stuff is happening in the mind, and the mind is in a body, and the body must live if this new stuff of Mind is to progress, and there are no guarantees. So it is Life that is driving all this, as if in Man Life has entered a tunnel and is fighting its way out. The old abhorred Possibility is the New Certainty, is the New Truth, is the new Ego. Erosis has become Eros: Eros has become Erosis. God has become the Devil and the Devil has become God. And clinging again, and loathing again and bitter and bloody argument. But something else: at the Cross-Over between Eros and Erosis, a new place is born in the brain. This is the place called the Tao, which Anglecynne calls Transcendence. At each cross-over, the new place grows and at last will insume Eros and erosis as mere choice. Mere choice is the liberation of calm reason in the selection of the other parent of your children. And all the while, the phenomenon is solidifying in consciousness and self-consciousness. Another name for Egotistical Dialectical Evolution is the Progress of Consciousness. Lust sees blindly; loathing sees dimly; forgiveness sees all. And so of course it is the progress of courage. The courage is the courage to let go clinging by lust/ loathing in the Acceptance of the Fact. The Fact that has to be accepted, the Fact that lies behind all Facts, is the Discovery of Death. For Man to return to Life, that Discovery is what has to be forgiven.

However Nature gives no guarantee. The Crisis of Human History has arrived. Anglecynne is the love of Life: Liberalism is the hatred of Life; Anglecynne is the forgiveness of Life: Liberalism is the refusal to forgive; Anglecynne is the Acceptance of the Fact: Liberalism is the refusal of the Fact; both are Doors – to different biological destinations.

The Pocket History of Man:- the Discovery → Dread (the hidden driver) → Lust (for the Perfect Solution) → Clinging (against the inevitable disappointment) → Rage (at the failure) → Forgiveness (Acceptance) (or else) → Transcendence (the Tao of Man)

And is this followed by a stagnant serenity?

No, it is followed by Peaceful Busyness: it is followed by Transcendent Dialectical Evolution. The Acceptance of the Fact is the return of the sanity of animals. Each individual exercise of Egotistical Dialectical Evolution builds the Transcendent Mind of Man. Anglecynne has said that the flow of Life characteristic within the Human is courage. Anglecynne has also said that Home is where Man belongs. The courage is to Return Home. The courage is to accept the non-existence of the individual. Not just unimportance: non-existence; self-fiction. The Ego refuses to belong to the biological collective in the desperation to be loved for myself alone. Loyal Liberalists and Bent-Nazis are Egos, the conspiracy of those who refuse to belong, sulky children who refuse to leave the playground and go home for their tea. But they are necessary to Evolution; the Baddies are necessary: the bowman knows that the bowstring must be pulled back to its maximum tension to speed the arrow forward to victory. The non-existence of the Ego in Fact is not highfalutin, think football: a team of 'prima donnas' is no team. The greatness of an individual player is nothing except it is in the team. The greatness of an actor is nothing except it is in the play. What is the teacher except his pupils? What is the writer except his readers? What is a 'celeb' on a desert island? Another name for all this is the Acceptance of Incompletion. No man is complete in himself. All the billions of us, like an unusually large jigsaw puzzle, add up to only One Complete Human Being. The Tao of Man or the Transcendent Mind or the One Mind of Man: no man has more than half the truth; the acceptance of his halfness is his wholeness. And here are all of us seeking something for ourselves alone. ‘But I’m charitable, I’m caring for others’, screeches the Liberalist. Yes, because it allows you your superiority ego. But Dialectical Evolution: the Tao is Yin and Yang: You can’t play football if you’re all in the same team. ‘Jack Sprat could eat no fat, his wife could eat no lean, and so between them both, you see, they licked the platter clean.’ We are not all brothers under the skin: vive la difference. Get it right. Our existence is our part in the Great Drama, is our belongingness in the Cosmic Dialogue of Man. And that is our rightness of being; our rightness of being is Home. Get it right, it matters, Man is the Universe waking up and wondering about itself. Man matters; it is in the Mind of Man where is decided the goodness or badness of the Universe.

A specimen of Transcendent Dialectical Evolution (not to be highfalutin) is the history of the pianoforte. A noble lady plays her psaltery. She is gratified. Another noble lady is listening. She is jealous. She summons her maker and demands a superior instrument. He is also jealous and sets to work. His new instrument delights her, she is proud. But now the first lady is jealous and summons her maker and demands of him a superior instrument. It’s his turn to be jealous and he zealously sets to work. She is delighted and proud. And an honoured guest plays it and she is delighted and jealous and summons her maker. On down the generations the creative rivalry drives the evolution of the instrument from psaltery to Steinway’s grand piano. Then it stops. It’s like a click. The mutant naturally selected for conservation has arrived, and all subsequent mutants fail like mist in sunlight.

Another name for Transcendent Dialectical Evolution is Redundancy. There is another law of Natural Selection not yet mentioned. And that is Redundancy. Evolution can only work on the agreement at last to die. Nothing lasts forever. To be reborn, you must die. The alcoholic must die to his alcohol to be reborn in the morning of water. Or just die. His choice. Our choice. The Economist must die to his Economism to be reborn in the morning of ‘enough is as good as a feast’. Or just die. All of us. Extinction.

Let us consider another example of Transcendent Dialectical Evolution: the game of chess. A game is spontaneous play. The front door opens; out charges Fido, and chases the leaf that gambols in the breeze. Chess can hardly be described as spontaneous play: it has accumulated a burden of know-how. It has accumulated it by successful evolution by creative rivalry. Such a baggage of opening gambit, middle play and endgame. How much learning must be gone through before the fun begins. In other words, chess is running out of future in the accumulation of the past: is becoming the past. And the Click of Redundancy comes when the child cries, 'stuff this', and rushes out with Fido to chase the gambolling leaf.

If we revert to alcohol, the Tao or Transcendence of alcohol is only semi-arrived. Its temporary name in our pragmatic English is social drinking. Its arrival brings a penultimate definition, a socially useful poison. And at last comes its Redundant Definition, unnecessary.

Apply this to 'romantic love'. Whom does the footballer love? Never mind his boorish reply. He loves the other team: the Necessary Other. And that used to be the love of man and wife. And is still the foundation of the enduring marriage. And so do we not conclude that the Redundant Definition of 'romantic love' will also be unnecessary?

War is the refusal to play football. War is the cowardly refusal to accept the Necessary Other. So is Liberalism. Minding Your Own Business is the practice of acceptance of the Necessary Other. Minding your own business is International Love. In the minding of our own national business, the Dialogue of Evolution goes on in International Silence.

It is the nation that evolves. The nation maintains an internal dialogue: asks the question 'Is this the way to be English?' And, to use an old-fashioned language, the answer is offered up to God as the question 'Is this the way to be Man?'

The question is uttered as a proud bold statement 'this is the way', followed by the humble question tag 'isn't it?'

PERSONAL MORAL RESPONSIBILITY

Anglecynne intends the Return of Personal Moral Responsibility. The drunk is of no use to himself or his family. The return starts with a formal acknowledgement that PERMISSIVENESS IS FEAR AND LOATHING OF THE MORAL MAN.

PERMISSIVENESS IS PERVERSION. The return continues with the recognition that uniquely in our species morality is naturally selected for our survival. Morality is the internalised NO as in 'no, that's not the way to survive'. In our species, uniquely, NO SAVES, YES KILLS.

PUBLIC DECENCY

Along with this goes what used to be called Public Decency. It still partially prevails. The ban on alcohol and tobacco advertising is an example. It is a component of Institutional Morality. Institutional Morality is the moral shape of society like a mould into which the individual must fit. Public decency is essential reinforcement of personal morality. It operates on the principle out of sight is out of mind. Permissiveness insists on the public arousal of ego-appetites. What else is advertising? Public England now is a slum of cut-throats, muggers, liars, slatterns, slobs, whores and squalor. What a debt of gratitude we owe to Permissiveness.

LOVE STARTS AT HOME

Orderliness in the family is the expression of family pride, most honourable in poor families who resolve that though they be poor they shall not be common.

THE RETURN TO PATRIOTISM

Anglecynne intends the Return to Patriotism. A PATRIOT LOVES HIS NATION: A NATIONALIST IS THE SLAVE OF HIS NATION.

PATRIOTISM IS NATURALLY SELECTED. PATRIOTISM IS HOME-LOVE.

THE CLEAN-OUT OF NAMES

Home needs a spring clean. Anglecynne intends the clean out of names. The name United Kingdom is swept up and binned. The name Britain means a lump of sea-washed rock. The name Briton means an extinct dinosaur. The name White means ghost of a dead slaver. The name Black means the Shadow of a White, means the descendants of African slaves who were set free but never set themselves free and so are still soul-shackled to the descendants of the slavers. The name Black-and-White means two drowning straws clutching at each other; means two ghosts wrestling in Hell.

The Chinese have a whole philosophy dedicated to THE RECTIFICATION OF NAMES. Let us rectify Black-and-White. White rectifies to English. Black rectifies to African. This is England. Since when do ex-slaves migrate to the home of ex-slavers? Does the Jew return to Auschwitz?

The names Left and Right along with left-wing and right-wing are PAVLOVIAN-DOG WORDS. Professor Ivan Petrovich Pavlov thought he had discovered what every dog-lover already knew that dogs are brainy enough to associate one thing with another. For example dogs will bark to be let out when they hear a blackbird shouting in the bushes because it means a cat's about. Pavlov demonstrated that dogs can be programmed to associate two things: to react to one as if it is the other.

So can Humans. A Pavlovian-dog word is a word intended to produce an instant mindless reaction. For example if you associate right-wing with Hitler often enough, right-wing comes to mean Hitler, and produces the correct hate-snarl. And by mere dualism left-wing must mean not-Hitler, and so produces the correct tail-wag. Pavlovian-dog words also serve to prevent thinking.

The Rectification of Names clears away the mind-fog, and now we see the enemy: Economism the Earth-Killer and Liberalism the English-Killer.

Of such words as Islamophobia, the Oxford English Dictionary says that they are mostly 'newspaper words' (see Anglophobia). And yet it is upon this 'newspaper' word that a whole criminal law is built.

Another brain-blocker is race-relations, which is euphemism for the enforced acceptance of aliens. Another is genetics which is euphemism for the malicious abuse of science. Finally Enlightenment which is euphemism for the hatred and refusal of life.

The Rectification of Names is a very simple task. It is simply the mental vigilance to withhold instant reaction, which is usually an instant defensive denial such as 'I am not a Racist', and instead ask the question: WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

ABOLITION

Anglecynne intends the abolition of the institutions perverted by Liberalism. The Anglican Church will be terminated unless it converts to Christianity. The BBC will be terminated. The House of Liberalists will be terminated. The royal family will become the private family unless they can show how they have served the well-being of the English.

These terminations include pensions and include confiscations of property bought by treason's profit. However there will be an appeal opportunity for the members of these institutions to show how they served the well-being of the English.

Anglecynne will sweep away the detritus of empire which reminds me of a toad I inadvertently trod on. What a proud thing it was; a splendid jewel of a toad. But when I trod on it, it went pop. It had been dead a long time. All its innards had rotted to a poisonous gas trapped in its bloated belly. What a stench.

It seems that Liberalism has perverted every institution in this country. Instead of standing rock-solid as guardians of heritage, the institutions have degenerated into flocks of sheep driven by wolves done up as shepherds. Anglecynne will abolish the peerage, those peerless defenders of the kingdom from whom not a sound has been heard. Anglecynne will convert the stately-homers into hereditary custodians of their particular bit of our national heritage. They will be tax-free and supported. Meanwhile let the family vultures beware who are disembowelling body after body of our heritage. Like our ancient churches stately homes are the national equivalent of the front parlour: our national self-respect is in their good order. Owning one is a duty not an amusement. Anglecynne will restrict public funding of the arts to conservation, will allow not a penny to be wasted on con-artists. Anglecynne will try its hardest to regain Liberalist-destroyed craftsmanship.

HORROR RITUAL

Anglecynne will bring back capital punishment. Capital punishment is a horror ritual. But what choice has Liberalism left us?

THE WAYS OF THE ENGLISH

Anglecynne will restore the Ways of the English. While the Americans were going to the Moon in feet and inches, we were told by Edward Heath that feet and inches were only fit for sniggers. ALL THE HEATH 'REFORMS' WERE MOTIVATED BY HATRED. And ALL that followed. To Heath and other England-Haters 'REFORM' AND RADICALISM MEAN THE IMPORTATION OF ALIEN CONTINENTAL PRACTICES.

WHERE THERE ARE MINISTRIES OF JUSTICE THERE ARE ALSO CONCENTRATION CAMPS.

But tradition evolves. This is true reform. The judges will elect the Lord Chancellor: the Lord Chancellor will appoint the judges.

THE RESTORATION OF HUMAN INTERCOURSE

The restoration of the Ways of the English is the Restoration of Human Intercourse. The most efficient form of communication in the Universe is two humans talking to each other face to face. That this should be an item in a political agenda shows how deep Humanity has sunk from sanity. What a sane economy it is that can no longer afford Human Beings. Artificial Intelligence is the work of Life-Haters. Anglecynne returns to the Post Office to pay our bills, have a cup of tea and a chat.

Anglecynne will abolish 'bank holidays', the very idea of which is a national disgrace. Anglecynne will restore the proper feasts of Home. Anglecynne will abolish the pernicious 'weekend' and replace it with National Gardening Day. Followed by the Day of Rest. Home is all Humanity needs. Happiness is not your dream holiday, happiness is cuddles and conversation.

THE UNILATERAL INDEPENDENCE OF ENGLAND

Anglecynne intends the Unilateral Independence of England. The future relations between Angle, Scot and Cymro is Mutual Independence. Since Britain will no longer exist except as a lump of sea-girt rock, Britain will no longer be in Ireland. English troops in the north of Ireland is the flattest contradiction of Anglecynne.

ONLY THE ENGLISH TO OWN ENGLAND.

Alien owners will not be compensated. Remember that immigrants are parasites on a psychosis. It is treason to allow survival land to pass into alien hands. If the English own foreign land, they should be sent packing.

MEDIA RESPONSIBILITY

Anglecynne restores responsibility to the media. The media displays in the foulest colours the given-half-a-chance law. The law states the corruptibility of human institutions given half a chance. THE MEDIA IS NEWS-ABUSE. God consumed Sodom and Gomorrah in flames because Lot could not find one good man in those cities of sin. Now Anglecynne cannot find one in the Media. The media divides its time between GOSSIP-PIMP and HATE-MONGER. Turn a page or switch a channel and there is the hate-monger. Listen as HATE SCREAMS AT HATE. And lie answers lie. There is no deadly seriousness but the gossip-pimp serves it tasty on his news-amusement show. No privacy but the gossip-pimp strips it naked for the ghouls of curiosity. No innocence but the gossip-pimp can make a witch-hunt of it. No suffering but the gossip pimp will serve it up with a crocodile's tear. No horror but the gossip-pimp can make a dildo of it for a ghoul's masturbation.

Anglecynne is tempted to shut the whole lot down: oh, the blessed silence. However Anglecynne will institute THE MEDIA-JUDGE. The Media-Judge will give protection to the Media and give protection from the Media. The Media-Judge will restore Media responsibility. Media responsibility is News-Objectivity. News-Objectivity is news selected to inform the recipient with what he needs to know, not with what he wants to know. The Media-Judge will purify the Media of gossip-pimps pretending to be reporters whose intent is to gratify prurient curiosity. He does this by the Media-Responsibility Law which states that every word the reporter reports is his word. This compels the media to act like a grand jury and evaluate the plausibility of and evidence for and necessity of information before passing it on because it will be liable to prosecution for uttering unsubstantiated news. Thus he will prevent media witch hunts and trial by media. He would have prevented the persecution of Prince Andrew. He would have prevented trials of 'historical abuse'. He will be fiercest in his punishment of those who utter false accusations of paedophilia or child abuse. Truth is the test. He will bury Lord Mansfield once and for all. And all Lord Mansfield's demonic progeny. He will not allow the names of accused persons to be published until there is a guilty verdict. The Media-Judge will block laws that permit indoctrination, propaganda and political censorship. He is the final guardian of the right of privacy: no snoopers, denouncers, outers. He will prevent 'Lucy-Connolly' trials. He is the final guardian of the duty of privacy: no 'celebs' i.e. psychotic attention-seekers.

He will interfere in fiction publishing. He will end the purveying of pornography of all sorts. Not punish it, shut it down. He will tell publishers to shake the serial killers and other vile clichés out of their pages as dogs shake foul water out of their coats. He will only allow Who-Done-Its without murder. He will shut down the publication of the Life-Refusers' favourite escapism such as science fiction, fantasy and ghost stories. He will direct to the cemetery the myriad ghosts of dead Tolkien. (Oh dear, what will the Life-Refusers do for amusement? Visit their Home, perhaps.) He will take control of the internet (shut it down?) He will end mobile phones. (Oh dear, what will they do without their mobile phones? Talk to a human being, perhaps.) The Media-Judge will end advertising.

Odd, is it not, that in the past we behaved with so much more restraint than we do now in the Age of Liberalist Enlightenment. Compare the media coverage of the Profumo scandal in 1963 with the Epstein scandal in 2025: compare a slightly leaky sewer with a sewer in full flood.

As for THE FALSE PROPHETS, the Media-Judge will sweep them away as the wind whirls away the sere leaves of Autumn. Christ warned us about the False Prophets when he spoke of the End of the World. He didn't tell us that there would be legions of them. They don't all work for the BBC. The false prophets are the deadly deceivers. 'YES', they tell you, when they should tell you, 'NO'. 'Stay snug', they tell you, 'it's just rain', when they should tell you, 'it's not rain, it's the dam breaking.' 'Christ is in you,' they tell you, 'have a Christ-snuggle,' when they should tell you, 'you won't find Him in your whitened sepulchre; you'll find Him out there in the ruins of creation.'

THE PURIFICATION OF THE NHS

Anglecynne intends the purification of the NHS. The NHS has long since been taken over by Liberalists, so that the duty of doctors is now the implementation of Liberalism not the healing of the sick. Anglecynne intends the reversal of the ethical decline of doctors. The decrease of hours = the increase of greed. Doctors serve their greed first, their ideology second, the State third, their patients fourth. Anglecynne intends to return to them their independence. Their patients will be responsible for their fees. (How the patient is funded will not be discussed here but it will certainly require means-testing and involve family.) Without independence doctors are bereft of their traditional immense authority: THE AUTHORITY OF THE HEALER.

THE RETURN OF ABSOLUTE PATIENT CONFIDENTIALITY

Anglecynne intends the return of absolute patient confidentiality. Medical histories of the most intimate sort are now readable by any policeman who requires a bit of amusement. Medical records must be snatched back from state control before they become weapons in the Bent-Nazi war against the English.

Anglecynne intends THE RETURN OF PARENTAL AUTHORITY: parents decide, not doctors.

THE LIBERALIST MENGELERS

The Liberalists have their Mengelers. Due to the corrosive effect of Liberalism on the biological family, more and more children are now without the biological sense of safety, which is the biological family, which I call Home. First the child is safe in the mother's womb, then the child is safe in the womb of the family. But under Liberalism, if the child is not murdered in the womb, he is born in darkness encircled by the red eyes of ravenous child-devourers. In desperation the child-ego seeks refuge where it can. When it thinks it sees it, it wants it with a longing that consumes its whole childish being. No longing like a child's longing unlimited by adult self-knowledge and self-control. Let us say that there is a Homeless boy. Suddenly he sees his Homelessness in the Homefulness of a little girl: he wants that Homefulness: he wants to be a little girl: he is a little girl: HE'S IN THE WRONG BODY.

The doctor of the Hippocratic Oath (first do no harm) recognises this as a problem in the boy's MIND, recognises a CHILDHOOD PSYCHOSIS in a HEALTHY BODY. And proceeds accordingly.

But the Liberalist doctor believes not in healthy bodies but in GRATIFIED EGOS. The boy must have his wish come true. A surgeon is found who MUTILATES the healthy body of the boy so now he has a PSYCHOTIC MIND AND A MUTILATED BODY. Such surgeons are Mengelers: they mutilate healthy bodies in pursuit of an evil ideology.

There is no argument to the contrary since the one indisputable fact is that no true healer will mutilate health.

And explain, Mengelers, the epidemic, unknown before Liberalism, of boys desperate to be girls.

LIBERALISM IS THE IDEOLOGY OF THE EGO.

Liberalist doctors are approaching a point where they do more killing than curing. The animal believes that I belong to life: the ego believes that life belongs to me. One test of the Evil Ideologies is that THEY ALL BELIEVE THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO KILL. The Communists believed that they had a right to kill enemies of the revolution; Nazis believed that they had a right to kill Jews: the Bent-Nazis believe they have a right to kill the most precious, the most sacred, the unborn child, the Jew in the Womb.

THE VENERATION OF LIFE

All animals except Man live the Veneration of Life: all animals except Man live within THE RIGHTNESS OF THEIR BEING. Man has to find the Rightness of his Being. He finds it by going wrong. Education is the survival of experience. The Parent seeks to prevent the Child going wrong; he teaches the child that LIFE IS DUTY. The Child cries (yet again), 'There must be more to life than this.' And off he sets (yet again). This time he is on his last journey. If he survives the journey, he comes to the bitter end. The bitter end is the EMPTINESS OF EGOTISM. If he is Man enough (as the Ancients defined Manhood, which is THE COURAGE TO ACCEPT THE FACT), he will come Beyond the Emptiness. Beyond the Emptiness is the plenitude of Life Reborn (how delightful is the taste of water to one who was just now an alcoholic), which is Lesson Learnt (at last), which is Home, which is Life is Duty as the sparrow lives it.

Sanity used to be invested in the Woman. She remained on Earth while He sought the answer beyond the stars. But it is the Woman who is on the last journey. We are not safe until she comes Home.

Therefore for us Humans the Veneration of Life is a survival necessity. The ego always ends up in self-destruction. The extreme end of egotism is the right to be killed. What begins as 'feed me' ends up as 'kill me'. The right to be killed is the ego's final punishment of Life like the child who self-mutilates to punish the parent. How pleased is the Liberalist State to be given the right to kill. Is this not the logical end of Liberalist patronisation, the extreme end of caring? Are you happy? You are silent. So I will speak for you. You are not happy. I will give you happiness. It's just a needle's tiny prick. The Nazis kill the disabled because they hate them: the Bent-Nazis kill the disabled because they love them.

POLICE CAN NEVER BE TRUSTED

Anglecynne has looked at the Bent-Nazi policeman who only a few decades ago was bobby on the beat and has learnt at last that police can never be trusted. A man becomes a policeman who like a dog feels safer with a master. Therefore he will bite whomsoever he is commanded to bite. Having no mind of his own, it is easy to give him the mind of his owner. Awareness Training is how he is given the mind of his latest owner. The intent is THE PREJUDICED POLICEMAN. The prejudiced policeman is the Blackman's and Woman's Rottweiler. Anglecynne knows that local police can be controlled locally. But the state intends a state police force. State control is incompetent to control locally. Down on the street, crime flourishes. And down there out of sight of his owner the policeman can give expression to his instinct of cowardly bully. How invulnerable he feels armoured in the uniform of the state. But if he is confronted by defiance, he is deadly dangerous because of his inner timidity and will become instantly violent with all the weaponry of oppression and in the certain knowledge of immunity. Anglecynne intends his abolition, intends citizenry to be the responsible keepers of the peace. Anglecynne doubts very much that it will pay the sacked policeman his pension. And Anglecynne most decidedly will not pay him his pension if when he is asked to justify his behaviour, he replies 'I was obeying orders'.

Anglecynne wonders how judges will answer when they are asked to justify their judgements.

ALL INSTITUTIONS SUBVERTED BY THE THIRD EVIL

Anglecynne looks around and can find not one institution but has been subverted by Liberalism. In the old religious days, we used to believe that God never fails to send us a temptation to test our truth. Amnesty International was sent such a temptation. Amnesty International was sent Doctor David Irving. Doctor David Irving was exactly the prisoner for whose succour Amnesty was founded. This historian was imprisoned in Austria for crime not of violence, not of theft, not of politics, but of words. Amnesty International refused to champion this prisoner of words because they didn't like his words.

Anglecynne intends to ask the National Trust which bit of our national heritage it will burn down next. Anglecynne suggests that if the National Trust spent less effort getting in touch with its artistic side it would have more effort for the conservation of our heritage.

Anglecynne believes that insanity has reached the bottom of the pit with the slogan of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds. Its slogan blazoned on every one of its vehicles is giving nature a home. Those who began by patronising Blacks now patronise the Planet.

THE PURIFICATION OF SCHOOLS

Anglecynne intends the Purification of Schools: intends the expulsion of the indoctrinators of children, who are those who teach English children to hate themselves as Nazi teachers taught German children to hate Jews.

And they teach children to hate adulthood.

Anglecynne intends the expulsion of anti-educators from schools who are those who refuse to teach children because teaching is oppression. They are those who will only persuade with praise which is to tell the child that biological lie that trying is the same as succeeding. They are those who give the child any excuse to stop trying, which is to tell the child that it's not your fault, it's dyslexia. They are those who when they are examiners, award marks of ninety-nine out of a hundred because disappointment is so harmful. They are those who refuse to ask children questions because questions are so intimidating. They are those who turn out children illiterate, innumerate, ignorant. They are those who turn out children life-incompetent. They are those who turn out children who know what they are entitled to, who know whom to blame, who know their right to hate. They are those who are the real child abusers. It is in the refusal of education to children that Liberalism reveals most clearly the depths of its satanic hatred of Life.

Anglecynne intends the return of the teaching of craft skills preparatory to apprenticeship. But where are the skilful?

Anglecynne intends the abolition of school holidays. Work is to be integrated into the child's day. Learn, work, rest and play.

Anglecynne intends the purification of universities. Anglecynne intends to shut the faux universities. Anglecynne intends the restoration of the English monastic tradition of universities with its severe celibate discipline. Anglecynne knows why, despite wealth and relative longevity, no other university has gained the prestige of Oxford and Cambridge. The later universities were founded by radicals. In England, radical means alien. The radicals founded the new universities in the wrong place: they are metropolitan not monastic. Anglecynne points out that this monastic tradition is as old as England. It expresses English pragmatism if it's not broken, don't mend it. The monastic tradition saw off the metropolitan Normans. Anglecynne intends to move London to Glastonbury. Anglecynne also points out that at present Oxbridge is bankrupt in all but prestige.

Anglecynne intends the purification of universities from ideological contamination.

Anglecynne intends the return of the trivium: to learn that revisionism is not history, that abuse is not argument, that hate is not reason. The trivium teaches both rhetoric and how to spot rhetoric. Rhetoric is the art of making a bad argument look good. For example, doctors are on strike 'because we need more doctors' is corrected to doctors are on strike because they want less work. (Note this example of the fatal effect of Liberalism on the raising of children. Doctors are soldiers. Soldiers must be tough to survive. The old education was to toughen up the young. Life is dangerous on a dangerous planet: be tough and survive. The aim of Liberalist education is to produce venomous candyfloss.) The intent of the trivium is to unlearn egotism by learning objectivity: objective reality: because I feel that something is so, doesn't make it so. The alcoholic doesn't believe in liver disease, but it kills him all the same.

Anglecynne intends the de-toxification of students, which is a simple medicine, given in doses of you will listen to what offends you. The victims of years of educational child-abuse has given them the soul of the ideological terrorist: I have the right to kill you for your words; but you can't touch me.

Anglecynne intends that the faux subjects and the faux sciences shall be eradicated from universities.

Anglecynne intends the weeding out of academic nerds posing as scholars. Academic nerds are the philosophers of hatred. Hatred has had three philosophies: Marxism, Nazism and Liberalism. They are the only three. Islam is not a philosophy of hatred. Those Muslims who murder do so because they have lost their faith and cannot face it, so find their denied infidelity out there in infidels; and if they can eradicate those infidels, they will never need to face their truth. Academic nerds are the inevitable product of Liberalist Anti-Education. Being both stupid and ignorant, they cling to intellectual formulae expressed in impenetrable jargon. Of course their jargon is impenetrable. Truth is simple: they do not have truth. If one is compelled by ones ideology to deny that two and two make four, one is bound to descend into infernal regions of fog.

But one quality is discernible in their jargon. Hell is ice cold, so is the jargon of the Nerd: Liberalist hate-speech.

Anglecynne intends the return of scholarship, but where are the scholars? Anglecynne knows that scholarship is the fruit of argumentative dialogue. The three Evil Ideologies do not allow dialogue. Without dialogue, the mind atrophies and nerds are now scholars.

THE NEED FOR NATIONAL MYTH

Anglecynne recognises the need for national myth. We Humans have been deeply insecure since our First Father who was the primate who looking for his breakfast apple, discovered death instead. Since then we have needed to have solace against the shock of the Discovery. Our biology most kindly gives it to us in our membership of the deathless body of our family, our nation, our Home in the life of Earth. Myth is the singing of this. Myth is the rooted mind in the rooted body. History must not be allowed to scandalise myth. History is not been and gone. It is here and now. It is a dimension of the present which organises experience out of chaos. It varies with generations, being always contemporary. Pragmatism rules that truth is a mind at rest, and therefore true history is the story told at bedtime for a night of restful sleep. And that is myth. The Bent-Nazis do all they can to mock our myth, so they can detach us from our membership, so each of us is nakedly alone, so we will be prey to the temptation of their cult in our desperation to find an alternative solace from the subterranean dread which is our inheritance from our First Father. By the Amazon there lives a species of ant whose individuals, when the river rises, bind themselves into a living raft that rides the flood. That raft is what I mean by Home. Myth is the binding. Anti-Racism is the unbinding and the drowning.

Myth has a deeper purpose. Man has no precedent. Therefore there is no one to teach us about ourselves. So we must teach ourselves. Myth is our self-teaching. We objectify ourselves. Satan is the objectification of our shocking eagerness for malice and cruelty. Satan is also someone to blame so we don't have to blame ourselves. We are not only dullards in our self-lessons, we are obdurate. Myth is mirror, but only when we accept that it is ourselves we are looking at.

Revelation transcends myth. Revelation is idea. The First Idea popped into the head of our First Father one morning when he suddenly realised that the hand he was looking at was his hand.

So history begins: we are at the end of the history that began that morning.

THE RETURN TO ORDINARINESS

Wise men used to notice the difference between the African child and the English child. The bright-eyed calmness of the African child and the dull-eyed restlessness of the English child. Because the African child is loved and not spoilt, he sleeps in the sufficiency of his belonging, so he doesn't need to be a Chosen One.

The English child is Homeless, has spoilt parents, is spoilt by his spoilt parents, is the spoilt-rotten victim of Liberalist Anti-Education. As a consequence the English Spoilt Child has a sense of his specialness no smaller than the Cosmos. The World must acknowledge that a godling has arrived. And doesn't. So off rushes the spoilt godling child to prove he exists. The only place he doesn't rush to is Home, where his ordinariness awaits him with its sanity and sleep.

The prime characteristic of the spoilt godling child is ZERO TOLERANCE. He cannot take no for an answer. On the street he is ready with his knife. On the wall of the doctor's waiting room there is a chart to warn parents against anger at their children's bad behaviour. Next to it is the doctor's Zero Tolerance notice.

The next characteristic of the godling child is PERVERTED APPETITE. There is not enough chocolate in the World to fill the Void which is his reality.

The third characteristic of the godling child is the compulsion to be ORIGINAL in order to prove his godlingness. This need especially torments the Academic Nerd. For example the History-Nerd doesn't prove that history exists: history must prove that he exists. He is compelled to make revolutionary historical discoveries. He is an intellectual exhibitionist, whose desperate cry is 'listen to me, all the old books are liars, I alone have found the truth, the truth that changes the World forever.' He is psychotically possessive, psychotically defensive, of his cosmic ‘discoveries’. Artistic-Nerds are even more legion than the Academic-Nerds. To prove their godlingness they are desperate to express themselves. But they refuse to learn a language, so out of them come grunts, whimpers, snorts and whistles. Never mind, there are always Critic-Nerds to reveal to the World the poetry of noise. Therapy-Nerds abound in the loony bin of England. They are the False Prophets. They are the godlings sent to save the godlings. But being false, they must lead their godling victims ever deeper into their godlingness, ever further from their ordinariness, which lies not in endless scratching of their self-sore but in the balm of body-busyness, out in the fresh air weeding the cabbages.

THE ERADICATION OF LIBERALISM

Anglecynne intends the eradication of Liberalism and all its works. The Liberalist is determined to subject Life on Earth to Year-Zero Revisionism. The Liberalist has had revealed to him at last the True Purpose of Life. The True Purpose of Life is the gratification of the personal desire of every ego, all the billions of them. According to the Gospel of Liberalism, God is Chef. The World is to be reconstructed as the Free Hotel where God-the-Chef cooks the personal menu of each of the billions of the unpaying guests. No menu is to be refused as impossible. Yesterday’s menu was gender choice. Today’s menu is even tastier. It is species choice. I have already chosen mine. Let the Mengelers prepare the scalpels.

Meanwhile the Planet Earth is reconstructed as the Planet Playroom. The One Commandment is play! The only obedience is play. The only sin is adulthood.

‘Beware the Devil,’ cry the nanny-priests. ‘He says there is no God-the-Chef; he says Biology rules us; he wants to take your toys away from you.’

The achievement is generations of obedient sick children who will kill anyone who to save their lives comes to take their toys away from them.

THE UPRIGHT FOETUS

The achievement is THE MUTANT HUMAN. Indeed so far has he left the Way of Survivability, like a man so spoilt by slaves that he doesn’t even know the way to his own kitchen, that he is not merely a mutant human, he is a mutant of all animals: he is the Upright Foetus. He is the failure of an evolutionary experiment. The evolutionary experiment is Human Consciousness or the Knowing Animal. The burden of knowledge is too great for an animal to bear because with the knowledge of life comes the knowledge of death.

Liberalism refuses life to punish Life for the dirty trick Life has played on us.

Hence the Liberalists' hatred for all healthiness.

Anglecynne knows that Humans who cannot forgive Life and so destroy themselves have been here before. But only as individuals. Now it is legions, and clearly Humanity is arrived at its supreme crisis, its extinction crisis. And is meeting it with cold hatred of Life.

However there have been other individuals who have forgiven Life for the dirty trick Life has played on us. They have accepted the Fact of the Discovery. They are braver even than the eaglet who steps off the eyrie into the dreadful fall of air and finds his wings. The eaglet has Faith; it's in his genes; it's the First Gene that Life is good. Life's One Commandment is Live. The few Transcendent Humans have Faith-After-the-Discovery, have Faith-Regained. Their faith is beyond belief which is mere words, is beyond hope, which is mere egotism. Their faith is Faith even in despair.

They, who have gone the eaglet's way, are the True Humans. Only they can save Humanity: that Life shall not perish from the Earth.

THE INSTITUTIONS OF RESPONSIBILITY

Meanwhile Anglecynne will establish the Institutions of Responsibility. Your right is your responsibility. Your ONLY right. Historically you have refused two things. You have refused responsibility: you have willed to leave responsibility to others. To whom? By default to the Boss and his Dirty Workers. More recently you have refused to be told to leave governance to your 'bettters'.

How have these two irreconcilables been reconciled? By default. The elderly Boss has been got rid of, leaving the Dirty Workers, whom I call Controllists, who now control you. And they, being paranoid, do not practise the prime virtue of the ancien régime: they do not practise laissez faire. They have learnt at last the best way of control: they do it THE MOTHER'S WAY. They keep control of you by keeping you busy with your toys; they keep control of you by keeping you spoilt; they keep control of you not with the father's fist but with the mother's milk: come suck.

But that's only the half of it. They also keep control of you by EMASCULATION. Anglecynne has not time in this manifesto to list all the attributes of the free man that the state has quietly stolen. Some people call these attributes 'rights', but they are better named attributes of the free man. Naturally enough the free man held the weaponry he needed for his freedom. Naturally enough the free man carried his accusation to the court of justice. Naturally enough the free man dealt with his defaulters. Naturally enough the free man allowed no hindrance to his right of way. Just four of the many attributes of your freedom that you no longer need because the state will exercise them on your behalf.

The result is what you mean by democracy: TEA TIME DEMOCRACY: what would you like for tea today? Hands up for cake.

Tea Time Democracy is the DEADLY reconciliation of the two irreconcilables. You WON'T take responsibility and you WON'T be told what to do. Another name for this democracy is ADOLESCENT DEMOCRACY: where's my tea and get off my back. Another name for this democracy is PERMISSIVE DEMOCRACY: play with it nicely or we will take it away from you.

The result of the decades of Permissiveness is the PERMISSION CULTURE. The Permission Culture has become so endemic that now we have to ask a judge for permission to be angry. The Permission Culture intends the utter paralysis of the individual will. Soon we will have to ask permission to breathe our English air (after the Illegals have finished with it, obviously). The Permission Culture is where the revolutionary Cult of Rights has ended up: 'do I have a right to breathe?' Hence Anglecynne's insistence on the only true definition of rights: your right is your responsibility. And Anglecynne's insistence on the attributes that appertain to us by the mere fact of existence: our Human-Animal Rights.

The intent and result of Liberalism is the Upright Foetus: a monstrous childishness that makes demands and never counts the cost, and a raped planet, and a mother state so utter and so utterly loving that soon she will help you to happiness by the least little prick of a needle.

The only hope for the sanity and survival of the English are the Institutions of Responsibility, which arrive by default by the removal of the INSTITUTIONS OF IRRESPONSIBILITY. Anglecynne intends to cut off the milk supply. Anglecynne intends to start by the wholesale sacking of the millions of the Controllists. When they are gone, by necessity YOU WILL HAVE TO DO IT FOR YOURSELVES.

And there is no time to waste. The disease of Liberalism is a galloping disease. Nanny's disguise is being dropped to reveal the jackboot beneath. Notice the change from The Citizen's Charter of 1991 of what you have a right to expect from the state to the now common in-your-face notices of Zero Tolerance. Notice the change from 'Welcome!' to the armed security guard.

And why should we pay pensions for being abused? Do Jews pay pensions to the SS? Anglecynne does not recognise the state except as it recognises a monster most dangerous when dying, and as it recognises dinosaurs and other extinct reptiles. Anglecynne insists that land is Earth Right not possession. Some civil servants may be retained in the transition from state to guild-run nation. After-all many Nazi officials were retained in post-war Germany. Which ones Anglecynne retains will depend on their reformation.

THE EXTIRPATION OF THE RIGHTS OF THE SPECIAL CHILDREN

In Animal Farm 'some animals are more equal than others'. In our Animal Farm, the animals that are more equal than others are the Special Children, the Patronised. Since your right is your responsibility, Anglecynne intends the extirpation of all the Rights of the Special Children. Once you step out of your privacy into the public place, you are responsible citizen. Anglecynne intends the utter abolition of all equality legislation, all equal opportunity legislation. All are the legislation of 'some animals are more equal than others': are the legislation of inequality and unequal opportunity. All are the legislation of the patronisers: you can't make it on your own, you need special help. The patronised agree: if we lose, it's prejudice; if we win, it's equality. Confronted with such stuff, the honest schoolboy cries, 'it's so unfair'.

Anglecynne knows the effect of all this patronising on the personality of the Special Children: spoilt rotten: godlings. Such godlings are they that they will kill rather than learn their reality.

THE CHILD DECIDES

As for the correct relationship between the sexes, Anglecynne knows whom to ask: the Child Decides. THE CHILD CAN TELL THE DIFFERENCE. And this the child knows: I HAVE BEEN BETRAYED. A horror film:- Mummy and Daddy in the kitchen, quite normal. A sulphurous flash of lightning. Mummy and Daddy start giggling and throwing the jelly at each other. Mummy gets a blob in her eye and has a tantrum and doesn't love Daddy anymore. Off they go into opposite corners of the kitchen, and begin to play with the pots and pans, and sulk. A social worker, disguised as a serpent, slithers into the kitchen and swallows the screaming child. Mummy and Daddy are so busy with their sulks that they don't even notice.

THE RETURN OF AUTHORITY

The Return of Responsibility is the Return of Authority. Authority is naturally selected for this species: the alpha male conserved through all the subsequent evolution of Humanity. Authority is to the nation what the sun is to the planets: keeps all in order. Remove the sun, the planets are disordered. Authority is not the committee, is not the democracy, authority is the One. The Romans recognised this, and in times of crisis elected the dictator. Cincinnatus was a very unwilling dictator, did his dictatorial duty and returned to his farm. The One of authority has traditionally been expressed as various forms of kingship. Kingship is the most efficient form of governance. The trouble with kingship is the king. Power goes to his head and swells his ego up to Caligula size. We think, 'the King is to guard our property': the King thinks, 'you are my property'.

THE EVOLUTION OF AUTHORITY

However over time Kingship developed virtues. Most of these descend from the Alpha Male. Not being a Controllist, the King did not need to control people; he left them to get on with their business. The King was defender of the kin; leadership meant just that: The King led his men to war, he did not send them. The King was aware of his kingdom as a whole. This is the King's Consciousness. The King kept watch over his kingdom. The King maintained his kingdom. The King was not reactive; the King was proactive; the King improved his kingdom. The King accepted responsibility. The King was bound by his word. The King accepted the Rule of Law that law was other than the King's word.

In Anglecynne's theory, the King was the good father who raises his child for his inheritance. This is what Anglecynne means by your right is your responsibility. YOU ARE TO INHERIT AND EXERCISE THE VIRTUES OF KINGSHIP.

The Meek have been the curse of Humanity. THE MEEK WILFULLY REFUSE RESPONSIBILITY. By an act of will the Meek leave governance to others. Rarely the others the Meek leave it to have been virtuous, commonly they have been vicious. If Humanity is to survive this must cease. The Meek used to exercise family kingship. But it ended at their front door. The lord of a little woman was the little woman of a lord. Then came Revolution. Now Survival and Evolution command that the Meek take responsibility: Anglecynne intends COMPULSORY RESPONSIBILITY.

Voter responsibility is real or TRANSCENDENT DEMOCRACY. Transcendent Democracy is THE CONDOMINIUM OF KING EVERYMAN. I am the Lord of the Manor of England, and my pleasure is the well-being of my Manor.

Evolution selected this primate for consciousness. Consciousness is the King's Consciousness writ large: evolution is fulfilled when this primate enters Kingship of the Life of Earth. I am the Lord of the Manor of Earth, and my pleasure is the well-being of my Manor.

This begins with the Institutions of Responsibility. Anglecynne starts in the English Way with practicalities. Take the village. The village will mind its own business. If it doesn't, nobody else will, and so it will.

And this within the National and Global Mind. The Personal Mind, the Family Mind, the Village Mind, the Shire Mind, the National Mind, the Global Mind of Man in One Mind. This is Organic Consciousness.

But who has ever attempted such a condominium without it turning into a 'banana republic' with a coup before breakfast and another before lunch?

The English have.

The essential genius of the English is constitutional. Nowhere where the English have settled have there been 'banana republics'.

Nor Hitlers nor Stalins.

Until now.

The individual, emerging from the womb of the tribe, is a nervy creature. He doesn't like his nakedness: he scurries back inside or takes cover in a leader or grabs leadership himself. It is fear that makes a man seek dominance. Absolute dominance is absolute safety – or so he thinks. But if he is confident enough to be naked – brave enough to be a coward – he doesn't need to scurry back inside or take cover in a leader or grab leadership. Out of English Christian History emerges such a man: the Protestant Englishman. And out of him emerges English Political Party. English Political Party is the Political Trust that inherits Kingship and exercises it. English Political Party is the prototype of Everyman Condominium.

At this moment English History is the English Tragedy. English Condominium is organisation more powerful than armies. The English Tragedy is self-punishment for the abuse of that power. The self-punishment is not self-flagellation: it is the continuation of the abuse, as Anglecynne has narrated in this manifesto. Why the abuse? English Courage is to step out of hiding into Individualism: the Naked Individual. The Naked Individual is the Competent Individual. It is the Competent Individual who can enter into Condominium. The first act of English Competent Individualism that Anglecynne is aware of is the shift of witness from fraternal to neighbourhood. The most blatant is the rise of the Protestant Englishman. The Protestant Englishman does not need a pope or a priest or a church to do it for him: the Protestant Englishman can go to God all on his own. Another act is condominium itself: the Whigs. Another is the Whig usurpation of kingship: you can be the figurehead, we will be the captain. Another – foolish and tragic – act of English Competent Individualism is to put our survival trust in money. But we Humans are not individuals: we are a kinship species. We English forgot this: we stepped out too far. The homeless man is the hungry man. A hungry condominium. We ate up continents as the locust eats up fields. Never enough. And all we had to do was go Home. But we didn't have enough courage for that. The empire was our home – as alcohol is the home of the alcoholic. That's why we cannot let Empire go, and sell England to save it; and that's why we cannot let Economy go, and sell the Earth to save it. Go Home or die, Englishman. Your death is the failure of an evolutionary experiment: your return is the triumph of life.

ANTI-RACISM IS GENOCIDE

Anglecynne sums up:- Anti-Racism is biological perversion, is Bent-Nazism, is genocide. Life on Earth is founded on the closed body, open only to mate, eat and defecate. This is so through all the millions of years of life until the Third Evil which declares that the closed body is evil and the open body is good. The open body is a dead body: Anti-Racism is genocide. A person called Kemi Badenoch, a Yoruba woman, tells the House of Commons that if this country were racist, she would not be here. What she should have said is that she is here because this country is Anti-Racist: she is here because this nation is possessed by a psychosis – upon which she is parasite.

The best of the settlers are parasite. Their parasitism is their silence. England is in trouble and they are silent. Their love of us is the love of the parasite for the host. The worst of them are Nazi. Their hatred of us is the Nazi hatred for the Jew. Such hatred is not new in history, endemic in death-discovered Man. This hatred is Night-Hatred: destroy the dark and all will be light. The difference between the settlers' Nazism and the recent German outbreak is the settlers' absence of arms. The Bent-Nazis are their armaments.

Even while this manifesto is being written, the Bent-Nazi war against the English is hotting up. The Prime Minister is moving towards the banning of the national flag. Nazis ban the flag of the conquered nation: Bent-Nazis ban the flag of their own nation, declaring that the sight of it intimidates the Invaders. A woman known as Nandy has described patriotism as 'toxic popularism'. The Home Office is now unashamedly the Office of Invitation. Down on the streets the programmed robotic police are busy, and loving every minute of it. In the Third Evil the fear is growing that The One Undoubtable Truth, namely Anti-Racism itself, is beginning to be doubted. History teaches us that heresy is answered with murder. Each of the Three Evils claims the right to punish humans for having the wrong ideas. The First two punished by the murder of millions. There is all the evidence that the Third Evil is moving to the same destination. And all because of an ancient act of moral cowardice: we couldn't bear to walk away from empire home to little England. We clung to our racial superiority in the only way we could: come to Mother. And will Humanity learn at last that when we Humans choose the wrong way, we go all the way to Gulag and Auschwitz?

Anglecynne tells you to answer this question: did the Nazis think that they were murdering Jews or did they think that they were protecting Germans? Now apply this to the Bent-Nazis.

Anti-Racism is not to be understood as a valiant experiment in global fraternity. It cannot be imposed on or even suggested to other races. To do so would be racism. Only the Whiteman is doing it – to himself. To cling to his empire he is destroying his Home. To cling to his superiority he is committing suicide. Anti-Racism IS Racism (as 'positive discrimination' is positive discrimination). The shoving-in of the alien settler is the shoving-out of the native. The shoving in of the alien settler was in order to have someone to mother. This was the first phase of Anti-Racism.

But now it is different. Now it is to destroy Mother's enemy: the doubting native. This is the second phase where Anti-Racism turns into Bent-Nazism. These two phases roughly correspond with the two phases of alcoholism, where first you drink for the hope you have discovered in alcohol, and then you drink against the disappointment. Unlike the sane animal, Mad Man CLINGS to his hope DESPITE his disappointment; if a little hasn't done it, try some more. He clings because the long ago Discovery of Death sits deep inside him as a desperation to find an anodyne, a forgetting. Not a forgetting of death, a forgetting of the discovery of death. It is the shock of the discovery which haunts and maddens this species. To repeat, Mad Man makes the World metaphor. Night is no longer merely for necessary sleep, it is metaphor for death. Light is no longer just light, it is metaphor for not-death. Man is the negative animal: he pursues things because they are not something else. He pursues sweet because sweet is not sour. He pursues money because money is not poverty. Man clings to his metaphors. He thinks he has found one. When inevitably it disappoints, he must cling to it because what is left if he lets it go? Nothing, intolerable Nothing, which is how he experiences the Discovery, magnified by his attempt to deny it. England was Nothing to the Imperialists.

Nothing is a fiction. The boy tells his mother to bring him chocolate. She brings him toffee. He throws it at her, screaming, 'it's not chocolate'.

Nothing is the truth of metaphor. Nothing is a fiction because Nothing is NOT-NOTHING: NOTHING IS SOMETHING ELSE. Not-chocolate is toffee. Not-alcohol is water. Death, then, is not the entry into nothing: it is the entry into something else.

Entry into the Something-Else is by Acceptance of the Nothing. Metaphor-Disappointment is inevitable: disappointment is the Door. Courage makes the Man, the courage to be Nothing. Christ is the prototype, the model and the guide. Before there can be King Everyman, there is Christ Everyman. The Acceptance of the Nothing is Rebirth, is Easter Sunday Morning, is the return to the sanity and virtue of the animal and onwards into Transcendence.

In politics the second phase, the clinging to the Way against the Way's disappointment, is very dangerous because in politics YOU'VE GOT SOMEONE

TO BLAME. Disappointed hope turns into rage. The opposition must be to blame for our disappointment. Rage is progressive: they are the opposition; the opposition is the Enemy; the enemy is the incarnation of evil; the incarnation of evil is the Devil. If only we can kill the Devil, the disappointment will go away. It is our duty to kill the Devil. And so on, all the way to Auschwitz.

AMERICA IS NOT THE WAY TO BE MAN

Anglecynne has said that the definition of a nation is that which you cannot join except the churchyard earth is made of your ancestors. By this definition the United States of America is not a nation: anybody can become an American. This fact of America is a huge problem for America's future. Anglecynne is compelled to conclude that America is a failed experiment, an evolutionary mistake: America is not the way to be Man. The Bent-Nazis are hell-bent on the Americanisation of England in this sense that anybody can be English just by arriving in England. The Americanisation of England is the genocide of the English. If we are to survive we must understand the difference between a nation and where anyone can belong, the difference between biological loyalty and club loyalty, the difference between the deep-rooted tree and the wind-blown weed, the difference between the animal and the ego. Americanisation is not only genocide, it is also a Crime against Humanity. What we call choice our forebears called temptation. Home is not a choice, it is a given. The acceptance of the given is a mind at rest.

BLACK AND WHITE

Acceptance is the end of the most poisonous relationship in history, Black and White. If I name two peoples, such as Chinese and Irish for example, I am not naming a relationship, just two of the nations of Man. If I name Black and White, I am naming a relationship, inseparable, the one implies the other like husband and wife. What relationship actually? Husband and wife? No. A love affair? No. A sibling relationship? No. A business relationship? No. Co-joined twins? No. What relationship then? A Hate Relationship. The true therapist says to the two who are in a poisonous relationship: you must just walk away. 'Free, free at last,' cry the two, walking their separate ways, running, skipping, leaping, 'free, free at last'. Not Black and White, they didn't walk away, they couldn't leave each other alone. We know why the Whiteman didn't: the master cannot be master if he has no slaves. Why didn't the Blackman? Why didn't he run from the Whiteman as from a burning house?

Firstly Anglecynne must point out that Africans are not Black. Black is the name which the descendants of the Africans sold into slavery give themselves. Black is not a skin: Black is a consciousness. An African is not conscious of being 'black' as I am not conscious of being 'white'. Consciousness is pain. The African and I are only conscious of our skin if it's sore. The Black is conscious of his difference all the time.

Black is how the Whiteman sees the descendant of the African slave: the descendant of the African slave SEES HIMSELF FROM THE SAME POINT OF VIEW. He has lost his African soul. He doesn't call himself African, he calls himself Smith or Jones.

Secondly what is a slave entitled to? He is entitled to his freedom and if possible compensation. Has the Blackman been set free? Yes. Has he been compensated? Yes, most richly compensated. He has inherited the very islands his forebears laboured on.

So why can't he leave the Whiteman alone? Why does he believe he is the black sort of white?

He was set free. But he has never freed himself. You are not free until you free yourself. Blackman, if you wish to be free, you must let the Whiteman go.

But it takes courage. Slavery has seeped into the soul. Africa is so far away. Safer to be Black than African. Black is an African in denial of himself as if in the tale by Hans Christian Andersen the ugly duckling dares not join the serenely sailing swans, safer to be ugly duck than beautiful swan, and how he hates the ducks for his ugliness.

It's not the first time this horrible relationship has existed. The raped woman belongs to the pimp. That's why he rapes her: to takes possession of her will. He cannot give her will back to her. She must take it; she rarely does. The Germans are in this horrible relationship with Adolf Hitler. They were set free of him: they never freed themselves. They cannot cling to him in the old way of 'our saviour' so they cling to him in the bent way of 'our devil'. They cannot move on until they let him go. How do they? By a Man's Courage to take the blame from him on to their own shoulders: 'he told us to do it and we did it'. It is also common among married couples who don't love each other but stay together because freedom is so lonely.

So the Black invents a rationalisation of his inability to free himself from the Whiteman. He invents 'Racism'. 'Racism' is the truth that the Ugly Duckling is not a duck at all, not one of us, in fact a swan. In other words 'Racism' is the denial that Black is not the other sort of White. The Black insists that Mother has two sons, one White, one Black, and Mother's White son refuses to accept Mother's Black son as his brother, and Mother must make him.

Deadly is the loss of free will, but even deadlier is its entrapment in another. Racism means the Racist is to blame. I am not to blame for myself: you are. I am not to live my life: you are. I am not to free myself: you are.

Hence the corpse of slavery, buried for over two centuries, has recently been dug up. It was buried in history because the slaver had ended it. When a wrong is ended by the free will of the wrong-doer, it is forgotten, it does not fester like an unhealed sore. Vice is turned to virtue. The future beckons. But it festers in the Black, and he needs it to maintain the relationship. He calls it 'White guilt'.

It is obvious that the only way to survive the brother who is not your brother is to keep him at a distance. And so it used to be – until we had to leave Empire, and hadn't the courage, and suddenly we remembered the Blacks. And invited them to come and live in their 'Motherland'.

It is obvious that the only way to survive such an invitation from Mother who is not your mother is to refuse the invitation with angry suspicion. The wise fly doesn't enter the parlour; Hansel and Gretel should have distrusted the smell of gingerbread; the Jew does not take up residence in Auschwitz. The self-freed slave does not resume his chains.

Has there been a more ominous voyage than the voyage of the 'Empire Windrush'?

Where does the self-freed slave go? He goes where his heart is: he goes Home.

But not the Blacks. They were not free; they came as to the Promised Land. No, more than that, they were coming 'home'. And when it turned out otherwise, when what they met was not a warm embrace enfolded in Mother's arms, when what they met was cold reality, their love turned instantly to hate.

Rage is the last defence against despair. Truth lies beyond despair. But the Blacks can stay in their rage for they have the Bent-Nazis, who are to them as the Devil-Doctor is to the patient when he prescribes poison because it is sweet and not medicine because it is sour.

That is the meaning of Black and White, the most poisonous relationship in history. And no such persons. We have proper names. We have proper Homes. Go Home. In Home is healing.

Africans are not Black but nonetheless 'Blackness' is holding up Africa. Africans cannot believe in Africa until 'Blackness' is banished from their memories. Africa cannot move into an African future until 'Blackness' is nothing more than a bad dream Africa has woken up from in an African morning. Black means White. White means nothing more than those people in the far-off north who may or may not have tails.

WANSEE PHASE

The Bent-Nazis are well into their Wansee phase. The Bent-Nazis' Wansee mind has concluded that English equals Racist. Their dementia argues that since the English don't exist, to claim to be Exclusive English is symptom of Racism. The road to the English Auschwitz is a straight run from here. Anglecynne insists that the Denial of English Exclusivity is genocide.

The English don't exist? What are the Bent-Nazis going to do? Are they going to burn the books? Are they going to airbrush those old primary school photos of those solemn or beaming faces not Angles but angels? Are they going to chip away the names on the war memorials? Are they going to rewrite history that all the works of English genius are stolen?

No, they are going to denounce the English as wicked in all our works while denying that we ever existed.

It is said that there is a debate on immigration. There is no debate because there is no right. If there is a right to Home, there can be no right to immigration. The two are incompatible. Choose which. Choose from the deeps of biology. Choose from the deep desire for Peace on Earth.

Choose quickly. The fundamental genius of the English was constitutional. Gone, there has been a coup, now England is a banana republic. The coup is the creeping coup of which Anglecynne has spoken.

To summarise the Liberalist Coup:

1. The Welfare State seizes self-governance from the citizen by doing it for him. The citizen loves his nanny.
2. The State seizes self-governance from the citizen by quietly depriving him one by one of his ancient rights as a free-born Englishman. The citizen, busy tugging at Nanny's sleeve, doesn't even notice.
3. Permissiveness. Marx growled that religion is the opium of the people. The Liberalists know better: Permissiveness plus Welfare State is the opium of the people. And how they love their drug. What Marxists condemned as 'bourgeois individualism' is now endemic.
4. The Liberalist's seizure of education, replacing it with indoctrination. Hatred of the past is the new patriotism. Unity in Hatred.
5. The infiltration and seizure of the Media. When the teacher pauses for breath, the TV takes over.
6. The Corporate State. The Corporate State is the invitation extended to corporations to extra-mural membership of the state. For example the police are now effectively extensions of the security guards employed by supermarkets. The point is to isolate the individual and so render him harmless. If there is a complaining customer, the supermarket manager summons the police. They arrive in minutes and arrest the complainant.
7. Immigration. The Immigrant is told by the Bent-Nazis that he is racial victim. This is now the official global culture of Mankind. He drinks it in with his mother's milk. He arrives with hate of the 'racist' and love of the anti-racist. He is immediately given membership of the corporate state and a hotline to the police.
8. The seeping infiltration of all the departments of the State. The State recruits behind closed doors. Liberalists recruit Liberalists.

9. The accelerating moral decline of the politician, demented by ambition, who no longer bothers nor is capable of controlling Controllists. In any case the politician hates democracy and all that election nonsense.

10. The infiltration and take-over of the political parties by stealth and expulsion.

11. The Liberalist government elected by masquerading as Labour.

12. And so at last the Totalitarian Liberalist State.

THE CURSE OF PARLIAMENT.

That this has happened in England is the Curse of Parliament. Seize Parliament by having one more MP than your rivals AND YOU CAN DO WHAT YOU LIKE ALL THE WAY TO AUSCHWITZ. The King was limited by law, which we called the Rule of Law: Parliament makes the law: PARLIAMENT IS UNLIMITED BY LAW.

THE CURSE OF THE REVOLUTIONARY ELITES.

The Curse of Parliament is how this England has been seized by the Liberalists without the need of a bloody explosive coup.

Let us compare the old elites with the revolutionary elites. The old elites were gentlemen. The old elites were limited by tradition, were limited by inheritance of the original concept of nobility of service. The old elites were kept sane by their rootedness in their ancestral soil. They still retained some of the virtues of the Hero Age, personal authority, responsibility, duty, courage, steadfastness, fortitude, endurance, honour, loyalty, faithfulness, truthfulness, chivalry, courtesy. All the old good manners derive from the Hero Age and continued to be the practice of the old elites, such as holding out the unweaponed hand by way of greeting. The addition of the Christian virtues to the Heroic virtues is the definition of the gentleman.

Above all, the old elites were hereditary. Heredity and tradition are inseparable and naturally selected and are the conduit of evolution, commonly called reform. Reform is impossible without the priority of Conservatism, which is the conservation of the selected. All in all the old elites were miracles of moderation and tolerance compared to those who swept them away.

The new elites are limited by nothing except their cosmic vanity: the Chosen Nerds. Pol Pot is their paragon and destination. That they are a curse to Humanity is not only because they are rootless, suburban, adrift from biological reality, with no animal sense of danger, and childish, and mad and can rearrange the planets; not only because tradition has not had time to tame them; not only because they are not of heroic temperament, are of a murderous timidity. They are a curse to Humanity because they are MAN WHO HAS LOST FAITH IN LIFE. Faith-in-Life is conserved since the Beginning, is conserved in all the old metaphoric religions, conserved until lost at last in Liberalism. And with it love is lost. Love is founded on Faith-in-Life. Without it, they can lust but they cannot love. Since they cannot live by love, they live by hate. The Life-Haters refuse and punish Life to extinction or they must fall into the Void of Despair where Satan must fall unless he forgives God.

Toxic Masculinity is Satan's name for his latest desperation not to tumble over the edge. Toxic Popularism is a hatred quite tame compared to the hatred seething inside Toxic Masculinity. (And nicely ironic since after several generations of Liberalism/Permissiveness masculinity in England is as forceful as a feather duster.) The given justification for this hatred are the movies from Hollywood and elsewhere that present an image of masculinity as zombie freak with gun. This is the justification for the ceaseless indoctrination of primary school children to hate their fathers, brothers and themselves if they are male. And helps explain the epidemic of psychotic boys. And shows the feather duster in the failure of fathers to march up to the schools to teach the teachers. Furthermore the indoctrinators are themselves to blame for these loathsome movies. They are products of the moral collapse of Humanity engineered by Permissiveness. Before Permissiveness, the showing of one of them would have produced in the audience shock, horror and outrage. If the given justification were sincere, the Hollywood images would be countered by images of wholesome masculinity, illustrative of those heroic virtues already listed. They are not. Did the Nazis divide Jews into good and bad? They did not. Neither do the Feminists divide men. It is masculinity that is toxic. The Feminists are the most deadly of all the revolutionary elites. They are into a Nazism of hatred and madness far deeper than the Nazism of the Germans. Not just the male, it is their own evolved nature that they hate, and life itself. And they are going to correct it not only with queer indoctrination but also with scalpels and chemicals and finally with Auschwitz.

Don't look for the needful outside yourself, it's in you already: FORGIVENESS – FAITH – LOVE – FIGHT.

DESTINY.

Evolution is without intent: Man is the intent of Evolution: Father, strong to save.

THE RETURN OF REALITY

With the return of love reality returns. Reality is just one word on your agenda: SURVIVAL.

If not, and soon, too late, no survival.

Nonetheless reality will return. Swift as the speed of light. One morning, a jostling shoving crowd around the doors of the supermarket and the sound of breaking glass. That's all it will take.
